New Volant Lions Club Is Chartered

Rev. Harry A. Silvis Presented With Charter By International Officer

FINE ADDRESS GIVEN BY FISHER

If Wednesday night's Charter Night program in the Volant Methodist church may be taken as a criterion, then the Volant community promises to be stirred to renewed interest in community problems, as the newly organized Volant Lions club takes its place as one of the county's live wire civic organizations.

The new club, 32 strong, was welcomed into the rapidly growing ranks of International Lionism by Second Vice President Walter C. Fisher of Queenston, Ontario, Canada, who was the speaker of the evening.

The Charter Night program was an outstanding one, Past President Dr. W. E. Flannery of the New Castle club presiding as toastmaster, and his wit and humor kept the audience interested as the program progressed, and spurred the speakers to a similar vein.

Pa Newc Observes

Local merchants are finding that little demand exists these days for snow shovels, sleds and other equipment that is used during snowy weather. Many areas around the country have already had a fairly good taste of snow while only a light skiff has been noted here.

Local fire hydrants could come in for their share of trimming up before the real bad winter weather approaches the city. Most of the hydrants present a shabby appearance.

Under the national food saving program this is eggless day for the week.

Red Strikes In France Develop Cabinet Crisis

ARMED FORCES ARE MOBILIZED

BULLETIN
PARIS, Nov. 20.—(INS)—An 11th hour hitch developed today in the anticipated announcement of the designation of veteran Socialist Leon Blum as the new premier of the crisis-beset France.

By ROBERT PARKER (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, Nov. 20.—France mobilized 70,000 members of its armed forces today to deal with the growing wave of Communist-led strikes in the midst of one of its worst cabinet crises.

The ministry of the armed forces announced that the order recalling the first half of the 1947 class of conscripts, who currently are on terminal leave after six months training, was drawn up when Premier Ramadier resigned yesterday.

Heavy Guard Maintained
Heavy detachments of police and mobile guards are stationed at strategic points in the capital to forestall any disorders during the present uncertain period.

Douglas Gane, Seeking To Find Lost Duck Hunters, Injured As Plane Hits Water

MEADVILLE, Pa., Nov. 20.—(INS)—Douglas Gane, Meadville flier, was in "fair" condition today after his light plane crashed into Pymatuning Lake yesterday while he was aiding in the "search" for the bodies of two duck hunters who were drowned Nov. 7.

Witnesses said Gane apparently flew too low over the lake, a wing tip struck the water and the wing was torn off. State police in a nearby launch pulled him from the water.

He suffered cuts, bruises and a concussion.

Use New Device
Search for the missing hunters — Kenneth Huff, 40, of West Middlesex, and John Aber, 45, of Clarksville, continued with a new magnetic device sent from State Police Headquarters in Harrisburg.

The 50-pound mobile "search magnet" had been undergoing tests elsewhere.

Asserts Labor To Defeat Congressmen Who Supported Taft-Hartley Act

DINNER MEETING AT THE CASTLETON

It was Labor's night in The Castleton hotel Wednesday night. Members of the executive board of American Federation of Labor affiliates in the county, labor leaders from over the state and others from Ohio gathered to attend a dinner sponsored by the New Castle Trades and Labor Assembly.

The principal speaker was James L. McDevitt, president of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor. In a fighting speech he declared war on all members of Congress who supported the Taft-Hartley Act, said that 20 of the present 33 members from Pennsylvania could and would be defeated and referring to this, the 25th congressional district, said that Congressman Louis E. Graham was one of the members marked for defeat for his support of the Taft-Hartley Act.

No Mandate
"The 80th Congress met with no mandate from the people," said he, "but they handed labor the Taft-Hartley Act, an act which robs many of the gains it has made. I headed a delegation to Washington to discuss the act with (Continued on Page Two)

Congressman Has Report Violence Spreads To Sicily

Italian Government Purges "Red Cells" From Nation's Police Forces

STRIKES SPREAD IN SOUTHERN ITALY

By MICHAEL CHINIGO (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

ROME, Nov. 20.—Communist-induced violence spread to numerous towns in Sicily today as the Italian government struck to purge "Red cells" from the nation's police forces after warning it is "vigilant" against possible revolution.

Several thousand persons, mostly workers from nearby sulphur mines, rioted at Caltanissetta and virtually seized the city despite police efforts to halt their "invasion." The town was the center of Sicilian disturbances.

Two policemen were badly injured including the local police chief who was hospitalized with a brain concussion.

Strike Extended
The general strike in Apulia province of southern Italy, meantime, extended through the nearby Lucania district. Headquarters of non-Communist parties in these regions were destroyed during the night.

Apparently in retaliation, however, a Communist party office in Serra Capriola—near Foggia—was burned down.

Several of the main cities of Calabria department are without light, water or electric power due to the Communist-led strikes.

Interior Minister Mario Scelba announced that such Red units exist and told a Christian Democratic party congress that they are being hunted down.

He spoke yesterday while Italian military units were frustrating persistent Communist attempts to seize power in three Apulia towns.

REPORT 2000 CASUALTIES

LONDON, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Casualties in the street crushes attending Britain's royal wedding were estimated at 2,000 persons up to 9 a.m. EST today.

Thirty-seven cases were hospitalized.

PRINCESS ELIZABETH AND DUKE OF EDINBURGH

Ivory Satin Gown Worn By Princess Elizabeth

By JAMES E. BROWN (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, Nov. 20.—It was inevitable, proper and well-fitting to say the least that Princess Elizabeth of Windsor was the best-dressed woman at her own wedding today.

Her gown is valued at $8,000, and reliable estimates say that it took 25 women a total of 1,900 hours to sew on its million tiny decorative pearls.

But in Westminster Abbey today there were many other dresses of magnificence and impeccable taste. For this wedding of the heiress presumptive to Philip Mountbatten, or more correctly, the Duke of Edinburgh, was an occasion that called for the best.

Of Ivory Satin
The princess' gown was of ivory satin, trailing a 15-foot train. Designed on classical lines, it had a fitted bodice, long, close-fitting sleeves and a full falling skirt.

The sweetheart neckline was embroidered with tiny pearls and crystal in a floral design. From the pointed waistline, formed by a girdle of pearl-embroidered star flowers, the swirling skirt was embroidered with tiny pearls and crystal in a floral design.

The bride, smiling and flushed, seemed almost overwhelmed by the demonstration of affection on the part of the crowd outside as she walked toward the glass coach standing at the end of the canopy.

Philip tenderly helped her into the coach, placed his naval cap upon his head and then took his place alongside his bride.

Popular Delirium

Princess Pledges To 'Obey' Husband

LONDON, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Unless fate should decree otherwise, Princess Elizabeth of Windsor, someday will rule Great Britain and its commonwealth of nations.

But she nevertheless had to pledge herself today to "obey" her husband, Philip Mountbatten, new Duke of Edinburgh.

The Archbishop of Canterbury, standing before the gold-laden altar in the sacristy of Westminster Abbey, asked:

"Elizabeth Alexandra Mary, wilt thou have this man to be thy wedded husband, to live together after God's ordinance in the holy state of matrimony? Wilt thou obey him, serve him, love, honor, and keep him in sickness and in health; and forsaking all other, keep thee only unto him, so long as ye both shall live?"

And her royal highness answered: "I will."

Colorful Ceremony Takes Place In Westminster Abbey At 6:44 A. M. E. S. T.

LONDON CROWDS SHOW ENTHUSIASM

By FRED DOERFLINGER (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON, Nov. 20.—Glamorous Princess Elizabeth, heiress-presumptive to Britain's throne, was married in Westminster Abbey at 6:44 A. M., EST today to the Duke of Edinburgh, former Prince Philip of Greece.

The long-awaited and colorful ceremony was carried out by the Archbishop of Canterbury before more than 2,000 chosen guests and was preceded and followed by popular demonstrations that have few parallels in history.

In the presence of kings, queens, princes, maharajahs and duchesses from throughout the world, the youthful pair made their solemn vows before the gold-laden altar of the famous Abbey amid scenes that may not be duplicated in modern times.

According To Schedule
Everything went perfectly according to schedule.

The deliriously happy enthusiasm of the countless thousands in London's streets was what had been anticipated.

So was the delicate beauty and incomparable poise of the beautifully dressed bride, who spoke almost in a whisper as she gave her "I will" promises to the archbishop.

The pageant of historic ceremony reached its climax when after exchange of vows and Philip's bestowal of the ring, the newly wed couple left the high altar for St. Edward's chapel to sign the marriage registers.

All the magnificently dressed guests in the church rose to their feet when Elizabeth and Philip came out of the chapel and back to nave to greet King George and Queen Elizabeth prior to their return to Buckingham palace in the famed ornate glass coach of the British royal family.

The newly created duke bowed gravely to his mother-in-law and father-in-law and the princess curtsied deeply and gracefully.

Through Bowing Guests
As the pair passed under the organ screen into the nave proper, Philip took his bride's arm and the pair walked proudly and majestically back down toward the west door through which she had entered through rows of bowing guests.

Elizabeth flashed smiles to special friends and Philip, still gravely half-bowing, gave recognition to all the distinguished persons present as he walked down the line.

As the couple approached the great west door, it was flung majestically open giving the signal for tumultuous cheering outside which penetrated the glittering Abbey like a blast.

The bride, smiling and flushed, seemed almost overwhelmed by the demonstration of affection on the part of the crowd outside as she walked toward the glass coach standing at the end of the canopy.

Maj. Gen. Meyers Got $25,000 Loan Probers Are Told

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Senate war profits probers were told today that Maj. Gen. Bennett E. Meyers "cut through red tape" to get a war contract for a Jersey City manufacturer who loaned him $25,000.

The manufacturer, Robert Cuse, testified he made the loan to Meyers to help the general promote a four million dollar deal in government bonds.

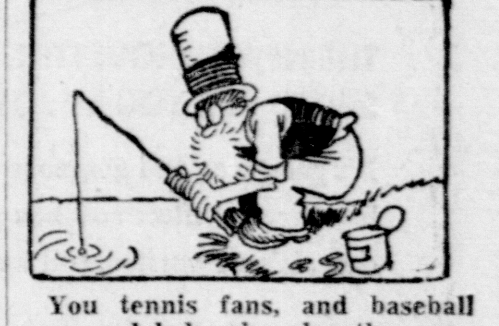

This testimony came as Meyers faced possible prosecution for income tax evasion. Attorney General Clark announced that the justice department would seek an indictment against the former air forces procurement officer.

Cuse told the senate war investigating committee that he attempted "many times" without success to get an air forces contract but had no luck until two weeks after he made the loan to Meyers.

The witness said the loan and the war contract deal were made in June and early July, 1944, when Meyers commanded the air forces procurement center at Wright field, Ohio.

AMBASSADOR FROM SOVIET AT WEDDING
LONDON, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Soviet Ambassador Nikolai Zarouhin and his wife accepted at the last minute today an invitation to the wedding of Princess Elizabeth.

You tennis fans, and baseball men, and lads who play the nags, enjoy your sport in field and stream and on the diamond bags. But me I pick as number one, the football lads delight. I like to watch two well matched teams, engage in lively fight. I never played this strenuous game, but gosh I like to see, a game where touchdowns spark the night, with wins by two or three. I know the fisherman enjoys his battle with the trout, but you will find me in the stands when football is about. I only wish the game would go on to the month of May, but then there's other sports to see, it's forty-three today.

Personal Tax Delinquents To Face Arrest

After Mayor John F. Haven reported to colleagues in council meeting Thursday, in city hall that, unpaid personal taxes for 1944, 1945 and 1946 amounted to $39,915, they passed a motion presented by Finance Director Albert Hoyland, which, in effect, stated that unless personal taxes are paid, arrests will result. Notices to this effect are to be forwarded to delinquents.

Heretofore, statements showing the amount owed, have been mailed delinquents by the city legal department. The response has been poor, although Solicitor Robert White reported $4,000 was collected from wages last year. He said that, failure to pay, can cause collection from wages, a levy on household goods, or arrest and upon conviction, the delinquent who fails to pay, may be jailed.

"If one pays a personal tax the other fellow should pay," remarked Property Director Joseph D. Alexander.

Safety Director D. O. Davies charged that personal assessment data was procured from the directory.

Mayor Haven stated "it is hard for one man to cover the entire city containing 50,000 people, to make the assessments."

"They formerly did it," Davies retorted. He said that a door-to-door canvass was made.

"This is what should be done again," Finance Director Hoyland stated.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack O'Neill of Jackson Knolls, R. D. 7, became the parents of a daughter, Tuesday, at the Mary Evans Maternity Hospital in Ellwood.

IVORY SATIN GOWN WORN BY PRINCESS

broided in a beautiful design inspired by Botticelli paintings. The design represented garlands of white York roses carried out in raised pearls entwined with ears of corn minutely embroidered in crystals and oat-shaped pearls.

The highlight of this Norman Hartness creation was its full court train of transparent ivory silk tulle; satin flowers, graduated in size, formed a deep border for the fan-shaped train.

An opulent tiara of diamonds and pearls held the princess' voluminous bridal veil of crisp white tulle.

Completing the ensemble were matching satin toe-less and heel-less sandals.

Elizabeth broke tradition by not wearing white stockings at the ceremony. Instead she wore a neutral shade of silk stockings with reinforced toes to prevent runs when she knelt at the altar of the Abbey.

In her hand the royal bride carried a delicate bouquet of white orchids.

The bridesmaids—in ivory silk tulle—formed a matching setting for the princess.

Inspired by Buckingham palace paintings, the bridesmaids' gowns were designed with close-fitting bodices of gathered tulle with shoulders finely bordered with white satin spring flowers.

The billowing white skirts were scattered with clusters of flowers in applique satin, embroidered to repeat the effect of the bridal train.

The bride's mother—Queen Elizabeth—wore a gown of apricot and gold lame. Her hat of ostrich feathers matched the full length dress.

STATE PRESIDENT OF A.F.L. SPEAKER

Pennsylvania members of Congress and Mr. Graham was present.

"We presented our case, told the congressmen why we were against the bill and then asked them what their reaction was to our side of the case. We were told it was a fair presentation, not one of them spoke against our side and then what happened? They voted not only for the act but to override the veto."

"Your 'distinguished' congressman from this district was one of these. You know his record in other sessions of Congress. Wait until you see his record in the 80th Congress. Not only his vote on the Taft-Hartley Act, but on other measures. Housing, UN measures, all of them were brushed aside in order that he might cast a vote for the Taft-Hartley Act."

"Can't Lick 'Em All"

"We realize we cannot defeat every congressman who voted for the Taft-Hartley Act. But I am convinced that we can defeat 20 of the present 33 congressmen from Pennsylvania. In the case of your congressman, two of your counties have expressed themselves before. We need help in Butler county to defeat him."

Mr. McDevitt said that the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor would soon begin a campaign of education, under the leadership of the national executive board of the American Federation of Labor. Pamphlets would be issued he said, and these pamphlets would be continued into the next congressional fight.

"The future of the labor movement is in the hands of men and women like yourselves" said he. "This fight can be won only through unity. Every craft union should be affiliated with your central labor council. In order to strengthen the fight. We expect to take contributions from individuals in order to put money into the next election. We cannot make contributions as labor unions but we can do it as individuals."

Lauds Meeting

Mr. McDevitt congratulated the New Castle Trades and Labor Assembly upon the meeting and said that in the coming elections the Pennsylvania Federation would have field men available to come in and help in the fight to be waged.

The dinner meeting started at 6:45 with Trades and Labor Assembly president, Ralph Audino in charge. He asked the crowd to join in singing the Star Spangled Banner and the Pledge of Allegiance, and then presented Rev. Thomas J. Jones, pastor of First Congregational church who pronounced the invocation.

Following the dinner Mr. Audino introduced Miss Amy Ballinger, international vice president of the Laundry Workers' Union as the toastmistress of the evening. Miss Ballinger introduced the speakers.

Mayor John F. Haven welcomed the nearly 300 labor representatives and said New Castle was proud of the men and women who made up the labor movement here.

Other Speakers

Short addresses were made by Hunter Wharton, international representative of the Operating Engineers, Albert Dietrich, general organizer of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, and Al Schwartz, general organizer of the Painters' International Union.

Special music was presented by Angelo Filigenzi, Jr., a violinist and Agnes M. Zackecio at the piano. Both delighted the audience with their talent.

Many guests were present. Labor leaders from Beaver county, Mercer county and Youngstown were present and were introduced. The dinner meeting was the largest organized labor meeting held in this city for many years. From the tenure of the remarks of the speakers it was the forerunner of many more meetings to follow which would be geared to the education of men and women in labor towards action in the field of politics.

Mrs. Laughlin Funeral Time

Funeral services for Mrs. John Laughlin, West Pittsburg, will be conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Marshall funeral home, Wampum. Interment will take place in Clinton cemetery.

Friends are being received at the funeral home this afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock, this evening from 7 to 9 o'clock and the same hours on Friday.

Mrs. Theophilus Funeral Time

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Raney Martin Theophilus, 1012 Beckford street, will be conducted Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock from the Howard L. Reynolds funeral home, Adams street, with Dr. J. Paul Graham officiating. Interment will take place Saturday morning in the Claysville cemetery, Claysville, Pa.

Mrs. Theophilus died Wednesday at the age of 54 years in the Jameson Memorial hospital after a two months' illness. She was the widow of Albert Theophilus who preceded her in death in 1937. Born July 23, 1893, in Claysville, Pa., she was a daughter of the late Oliver and Nora Jackson Martin.

The deceased was a member of the Third U. P. church, the Y.L.B. class and M. C. circle of that church and Auxiliary to the Veterans of the Spanish American War.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Sally Gibson, Cincinnati, O.; two sons, Oliver Theophilus, Alpine, Tex., and Albert Theophilus, Baton Rouge, La.; one sister, Mrs. Louise Bennett, Columbus, O., and three grandchildren.

Friends may call at the Reynolds funeral home at any time after 2 o'clock this afternoon.

SENATOR BRIDGES URGES CAUTION IN EUROPE AID

have them sent to Russia and possibly have their capacity used against us.

The situation is very reminiscent of the years before Pearl Harbor, when we supplied scrap steel and other war-making supplies to Japan.

Getting Equipment Free

The only difference is that Japan paid for her scrap iron and steel while the Russians now are getting the equipment free.

In Greece, we saw another instance of how Communists are turning our own goods to use against our purposes.

We are spending hundreds of millions of dollars to help Greece defeat her guerrilla bands and save herself from the threat of Communism.

Yet we got reports from the front lines that many Communists guerrillas were armed with American lend-lease weapons, and were using military rations that reached southeastern Europe from the United States through UNRRA.

This again points out that in extending Europe aid we must watch carefully to see that our right hands know what our left hands are doing.

In that suggestion, I have no thought that we should withhold aid. But we should take these steps:

1. We should first determine our own ability to give.
2. We should then ascertain where the aid can be most effectively used, and
3. We must establish some measure of American follow-up to see that the aid is used for the intended purposes and with as little waste as possible.

MUST EXPEDITE WORK

Council today told Harry Fisher that he must hurry with the demolition of the old Whaley property, East Washington street, and to safeguard pedestrians from danger, otherwise the city will do the work and charge the cost to Fisher.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Morris of 611 East Reynolds street, have received word from their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Morris of Whiting, Ind., that Mrs. Morris is recovering from a serious operation, at St. Catherine's Hospital, East Chicago.

ROYAL WEDDING IS SOLEMNIZED AT LONDON TODAY

popular delirium which V-E day scarcely matched.

On the return drive, Elizabeth waved and Philip saluted continuously.

Unparalleled scenes in the palace area greeted the couple. The solidly-packed mob almost went wild, screaming, yelling, shouting and singing "All Nice Girls Love a Sailor."

Hundreds fainted in the press, and only tremendous efforts on the part of police prevented the surging crowds from overwhelming the passing coach.

King George and Queen Elizabeth also received a rapturous welcome on the return drive.

As the chief participants slipped safely back into the palace, the crowds began calling for the newlyweds to appear on the balcony. They chanted loudly.

"We want Elizabeth; we want Philip."

Married At 6:44 A. M. EST

The youthful couple—Elizabeth 21 and Philip 26—were pronounced man and wife at 11:44 a. m. (6:44 a. m. EST).

The procession up through the nave and choir to the sanctuary of the Abbey had started at 11:34 a. m. (6:34 a. m. EST) with all the guests in their places and in resplendent attire.

There were gasps of delight from those in the Abbey over the beautiful appearance of the princess in her magnificent wedding gown.

The Archbishop of Canterbury began the traditional Anglican wedding ritual before the high altar immediately. The vows were exchanged at 11:39 a. m. (6:39 a. m. EST).

Philip's "I will"—which included a promise from the probable future queen to "obey" him—was quietly firm.

That of Elizabeth seemed to those in the Abbey to be but barely whispered.

Almost Overwhelmed

Spectators in the Abbey reported that the young couple appeared almost overwhelmed by the solemnity of the occasion as they exchanged the marriage vows.

The voices of both were scarcely audible at times.

Philip began huskily, but his voice gained strength as he proceeded in answer to the archbishop's time-honored series of statements and questions.

And as he made the customary declaration to "support, love and cherish" Elizabeth when he placed the ring on his bride's finger, his final answer almost rang out and echoed through the Abbey.

The archbishop concluded the marriage service at 12:04 p. m. (7:04 a. m. EST) with his benediction.

The regally-attired guests then rose and sang the national anthem, after which the royal procession, led by the clergy, moved into ancient St. Edward's chapel for the signing of the formal marriage registers.

President Vincent Auriol will issue a two page declaration later today appealing to the nation to maintain calm in the face of mounting strikes and disturbances.

Auriol received a succession of leaders of various parliamentary groups this morning while only a caretaker government temporarily was at the helm.

Former Premier Leon Blum, "grand old man" of French politics is considered the most likely man to head the crisis government.

Hopes To Resolve Crisis

Rene Coty, president of the independent group in parliament, declared upon leaving the Elysee palace that the "president hopes to be able to resolve the crisis rapidly."

Authoritative Paris quarters insist that preliminary details—such as Blum's acceptance, composition of his cabinet and the program to be followed—were settled in "behind the scenes" conferences before Ramadier resigned yesterday. Ramadier's resignation was viewed in diplomatic circles as having been precipitated by his failure to obtain strong enough powers to deal with the Communist inspired strike situation.

Ramadier is known to have been desirous of resorting to the strongest measures possible—including a possible partial mobilization—to combat the spreading walkouts and prevent a nationwide general strike.

High-ranking French military sources informed International News Service that a partial mobilization would have enabled Ramadier to requisition transportation and port workers into a "reserve" for 15 days.

WHY A "Registered" Jeweler?

Your best assurance of true value and beauty in diamonds and jewelry comes from a jeweler with unquestionable integrity. The reputation of a REGISTERED Jeweler firm is passed upon by a Board of outstanding Retail Jewelers. A REGISTERED Jeweler must pass established examinations in the fundamentals of Gemology—the science of all precious stones and metals—and in new scientific methods of grading diamonds.

Now you can be sure to be safe when you select a diamond because you benefit by our scientific study of Gems through the American Gem Society.

To maintain the title of REGISTERED Jeweler requires yearly "customer-protection" examinations.

LADIES OF KIWANIS HEAR DR. FLANNERY

Ladies of Kiwanis gathered for their November luncheon meeting in parlor A of The Castleton on Thursday afternoon. Luncheon was served at 1:30 o'clock at the U-shaped table. Mrs. J. Lumen Popp, Mrs. Jacob F. Perelman and Mrs. Charles E. McGrath were hostesses.

Guests were introduced and notes of interest to the membership were given by Mrs. J. A. Hartman.

Dr. Wilbur E. Flannery, who was introduced as the speaker of the afternoon by Mrs. Stanley Zarembo, talked on "Putting Cancer in Its Place".

It may be put in its place firstly, he said, by knowledge about it, its nature, prevalence, etc., so that it may be viewed in its proper perspective. In speaking of what is known of what causes cancer, he mentioned disturbances in circulation, he observed, we may some day find disturbances in nutrition may be a cause. Secondly, he said, by detecting cancer we may put it in its place. This service is about to be offered here to well people through the establishment of a Cancer Detection Center.

Finally, he concluded, cancer may be put in its place by recognition of how valuable the methods of treatment are at present.

A business meeting took up the latter part of the program during which it was announced that Mrs. James A. Gaiser is a new member.

A report on the Kiwanis concert series was given by Mrs. Floyd Perrine. Also members were reminded to take magazines to the Elm street Y. W. C. A. and the Shengango street Y. M. C. A. whenever possible.

It was decided to have a special fund-raising event on Monday, December 1, with Mrs. Floyd Perrine and Mrs. J. J. Alexander named as co-chairmen and others on the committee are Mrs. Kenneth McLure, Mrs. A. H. Gonick and Mrs. J. F. Perelman.

Next meeting will be December 17 when Mrs. R. M. Patterson will be the speaker.

WALMO KENSINGTON LUNCHEON EVENT

Walmo Kensington members were entertained for a lovely 1 o'clock luncheon in the home of Mrs. Frank Patterson, Buena Vista way, on Wednesday afternoon.

Guests were seated at the dining table centered with a bowl of yellow and bronze mums.

During the afternoon an informal social time was enjoyed with a letter read from Mrs. John B. Norris, now traveling in California, and also one from Mrs. Joseph Craig, now a resident of Yucca Valley, Calif. Members wrote a round-robin letter to Mrs. Craig.

Special guests were Mrs. James Bradford, Miss Barbara Bradford and Mrs. Robert Young.

Miss Eva Bratton aided the hostess.

Names were drawn for a Christmas exchange to take place at the Christmas party on December 17 in the home of Mrs. R. A. Stevenson, Wilmington road.

BEESSEMER WOMAN'S CLUB NEW MEMBERS

Twelve new members were welcomed into the Beesemer Woman's club at its November meeting in the Beesemer Presbyterian church Tuesday evening. Mrs. Ralph Engle, president, extended a message of welcome to Mrs. James Crawford, Mrs. Lyle Gibson, Mrs. Bill Kildoo, Mrs. John Kyle, Mrs. Judd Lamson, Mrs. Thomas Martin, Mrs. John D. McCord, Mrs. C. R. O'Neill, Mrs. George Peltz, Mrs. Forbie Pitzer, Jr., Mrs. Lester Ruehle and Mrs. Bert Schroeder. They were introduced by Mrs. Elmer Shaffer, program chairman.

Speaker was Rev. Eugene, D.D. of Youngstown, who reviewed John Gunther's book "Inside U. S. A."

The presentation of this book about the United States was received with warm applause. Dr. Beach was introduced by Mrs. Roy Wallis, program chairman.

On the musical portion of the program Herbert Pridham of Youngstown sang four selections, with Mrs. Martha Bailey Walt, also of Youngstown, as accompanist.

November 22 was announced as the date for the club's next project. To bring the evening to a close a lunch was served from two tables prettily decorated with yellow baby mums.

Tuesday, December 9, is the date of the club's Christmas party when Mrs. Daniel Pyle of Youngstown will speak on "Christmas Decorations".

McQUISTON-REESE CEREMONY QUIET

At a double ring ceremony performed in the home of Rev. Calvin J. Rose on November 18, at 7:30 p. m., Miss Martha C. McQuiston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. McQuiston, of R. D. 3, became the bride of Charles Reese, Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reese, of 444 Countyline street.

QUEEN ESTHERS ELECT OFFICERS

Members of the Queen Esther's missionary circle of the First Methodist church were entertained in the home of Mrs. Russell Shields, 228 Edgewood avenue, Tuesday evening, when officers for the coming year were elected.

They are: president, Miss Mary Alice White; first vice president, Miss Neva Moore; second vice president, Mrs. J. H. Templeton; recording secretary, Mrs. Freas Powell; corresponding secretary, Mrs. B. F. Steinbrink; treasurer, Mrs. R. B. Shiner.

An auction of foodstuffs with Miss Martha Bigley in charge caused much merriment and netted a nice sum for the treasury. Following the devotionals led by Miss Sarah Wallace, Mrs. Worrell Jones read "Mother of Thanksgiving" by Bennie Bergson. Mrs. Clarence Coates presided.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Freas Powell's group, Mrs. T. G. Allen, Mrs. C. H. Coates, Mrs. T. J. Hamilton, Mrs. R. B. Shiner, and Mrs. F. R. Cooney.

On Tuesday, December 16 there will be a Christmas party with a gift exchange in the parsonage, 406 Glenmore boulevard. Mrs. James A. Gaiser will be hostess and Mrs. Leonard Cramer's group will be in charge.

RAINBOW ASSEMBLY WILL PRESENT WORK

Officer of New Castle Assembly, No. One, Order of Rainbow for Girls, will exemplify the work of Rainbow for the members of New Castle Consistory on Friday afternoon, at 4 o'clock in the East Lodge Room of The Cathedral.

Miss Norma Long, Worthy Advisor, and Mrs. George D. Reid, Mother Advisor, will preside and special numbers will be presented by the choir, under the supervision of Mrs. Clifford M. Propst.

On Friday evening, December 5, at 7:45 o'clock, the new Rainbow drill, directed by Miss Betty Bri denbaugh, will be presented for the first time as one of the numbers of the Consistory party entertainment. The drill corps, composed of 16 Rainbow members, will wear uniforms appropriate to the occasion.

On Monday, December 8, the Rainbow Assembly will be guests of New Castle Chapter, No. 105, O.E.S., and will initiate a large class of young ladies. The choir and drill team will also be presented.

LET'S LOOK AT THE RECORD

The question of relief and rehabilitation of European nations will be foremost in the public mind during the next few months due to the recommendations of President Truman to Congress for the drafting of a so-called "Marshall plan." Estimates of what this relief will cost during the next three or four years vary. But there is no gain-saying the fact that Uncle Sam, since the end of the war, has already extended twenty billion dollars!

A breakdown of this relief was made public recently by Senator Harry Flood Byrd, Democrat of Virginia. Detailed post-war assistance has been extended in the sum of $16,200,000,000, according to Senator Byrd, and in addition to this another $3 billion or so in relief which is difficult to calculate has been accorded. The Virginia statesman's figures are based on figures submitted by the Bureau of the Budget.

Senator Byrd points out that of the sum mentioned $4,300,000,000 has been authorized for this fiscal year which ends on June 30, 1948, and this figure does not take into account the amount to be expended by the Army for occupation purposes in Europe. But Senator Byrd's statement adds:

"Nearly $60,000,000 earmarked for Russia and her satellites;

"More than $2,500,000,000 for eight other major nations of western Europe, including France, Germany and Italy;

"More than $1,000,000,000 for China, Japan, Korea and the Philippines;

"More than $500,000,000 in lesser amounts for numerous smaller nations of Europe, Near East, Middle East, Far East and Africa, along with:

"Indirect relief represented by $86,000,000 in United States contributions this year to the International Refugee Organization and the International Children's Emergency Fund. . . .

"In addition to the recorded assistance which could be calculated without qualification, are other transactions which have been beneficial abroad since the war but are difficult to assess and estimate in terms of relief or aid. Among such transactions are: United States payments since the war for strategic materials procured abroad, post-war payments for supplies, services and currencies furnished by foreign countries, payments made after the war for supplies and services furnished during the war, and aid for currency stabilization abroad, etc.

"To complete the civilian relief calculation, there should be added an unrecorded amount of aid furnished directly by the United States armies to occupants of enemy prison camps and civilian populations freed in their advances for which, due to circumstances, there was no accounting. There was a vast amount of this type of aid, especially in Europe immediately prior to July 1, 1945."

In view of the fact we are urged to help Europe to check communism, that item of $60,000,000 aid this year to Russia and satellite countries is especially interesting.

STATE FIGHT AGAINST FIRE

There is some satisfaction in the announcement by Thomas J. Quigley, director of the Bureau of Inspection, Department of Labor and Industry, that, compared to what they were a few years ago, State institutions "are generally in very good shape" regarding precautions and fire-prevention facilities.

But too many of the present buildings are not of fire-proof construction. Some ought to be condemned or need extensive renovation. Improvements may have been great, but so much remains to be done that the safety program is only in its beginning stages.

Certainly in public buildings the observation of safe building practices ought to be absolute, and even wartime and post-war material shortages of such items as fire alarm bells can offer no excuse for laxity. The State's general and mental hospitals and penal institutions should be structurally as near fireproof as engineers can make them.

It is true, of course, that the personnel in these public buildings are especially conscious of fire hazards, and, as the director maintains, and very well organized to meet emergencies. That is particularly important because present hazards are too high.

But such vigilance is to be expected in any case, and should become increasingly efficient from now on, since the money is available to put buildings in first-class shape.

No matter how little the average Red thinks of our Constitution, he is always a stickler for standing on his own Constitutional rights.

Some manufacturer could make a lot of money by turning out bathroom scales which always register twenty pounds less than a "ardupois."

The Hon Glenn Taylor, who started to ride horseback across the nation to warn it of impending doom, quit the saddle at Phoenix and became an airborne Paul Revere.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. Ostreicher, INS Foreign Director

The unexpected gesture of King George VI in making available to parliament his own personal savings to support Princess Elizabeth and Lieut. Philip Mountbatten for a while at least gave emphasis to-day to the shrewd and canny economies of the British royal family. It was entirely within his right to ask the House of Commons for a special grant upon the marriage of his daughter.

He had been expected to do so, and except for some noisy opposition by the two Communists in the House, the appropriation doubtless would have been passed without any difficulty.

Proud Of Traditions
But Queen Elizabeth is proud of her Scottish tradition as a Bowes-Lyon. And while her ancient family, the Earls of Strathmore, have lived in great moated castles with dogs and horses and grouse-shooting an integral part of the picture, her background has comparatively speaking a simple one.

It is sometimes difficult for non-British people to comprehend the system of royalty that prevails in the British Isles.

The king is paid out of what is known as the "civil list," an institution with the traditions of centuries behind it.

His gross income and that of his family is well above two million dollars a year, but the drains upon this sum are enormous.

There are the palaces to be kept up, for example. These are not homes or mansions in the accepted sense; they are shrines of England's lasting glories and the people who live in them are to a certain degree incidental.

It has never been as true as to-day that the crown more than anything else holds the British Commonwealth of nations together.

There have been British monarchs in recent times who took their full prerogatives along with their duties.

Could Exult In Luxury

Kink Edward VII was a case in point. A man of enormous good nature, he loved all of life's creature comforts and was fortunate to rule in a time when a monarch to the manner born could exult in luxury.

But economic disasters and two wars within a generation taught the House of Windsor a different type of living. It is true that Princess Elizabeth has been showered with jewels that would have ransomed a dozen kings in the old days.

These, however, are or were the personal possessions of her rela-

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

SALESMANSHIP REQUIRES HARD WORK

During recent years, when most goods have been scarce, relatively few youths entering the selling field have had a challenge to do their best. A few of these youths, indeed, may have found it so easy just "to take orders" and make up "waiting lists," that they will not amount to much when really skillful salesmanship comes to be required of them.

But there are many fields of merchandising developing or soon to develop in which the youth with the right stuff in him can make big opportunities for himself. While native aptitude and education will be strong factors for helping him succeed, the one indispensable factor will be his willingness to do hard work.

Increased Earning Power

Whether behind a counter in a store or out in the indefinite field where prospective buyers may be found, the young man or woman who wishes to rise as a salesperson finds practically no limit to the extra time and effort he can profitably spend for self-improvement, for increasing his earning power as a salesperson.

Self-Discipline

But for the best development on such a job the youth must exercise great self-discipline and hard work. True, he must punch no clock, he can stay home when he has a slight cold or headache. He can quit early when he feels tired. He can go fishing, hunting, golfing, or attend the big games or races when he pleases.

Yet if he is to succeed he will allow himself only a limited number of these diversions, programmed ahead of time. He will hold himself strictly to a working schedule. Unless he does so, he may fail and soon suppose there is no real opportunity for success in his field when, as a matter of fact, he just failed to see and seize the opportunity for want of self-discipline.

An Exacting Boss

To any young man or woman launching on a selling job, in which you will be practically your own boss: Be an exactly boss. Hold yourself to at least eight hours of hard work daily. Have a regular time, so far as the nature of your clientele will permit, to begin and quit work each day. Follow your plan conscientiously. Do this not only for immediate success but also for self-training that will fit you for greater success on the present job or fit you for a better job.

Younger men still at school or college can prepare well for such a job by holding themselves now to a rigid schedule of school and class attendance and to habits of faithful home preparation of classroom assignments.

If there is any one thing more than another which the average modern youth is not learning it is the habit of application to hard work at whatever his head and hands find to do. For only a very few is there an easy road to success.

And probably represent a great deal of scripping and saving here and there throughout the years.

Anyone familiar with the musty news back of Buckingham Palace recognizes there is a definite simplicity about the British royal house today.

Its cars are expensive Daimlers, always brightly polished, but they are far from new. And the royal coaches rumble through the streets Thursday are heirlooms of the nation, not personal possessions.

With few exceptions, the British people want their sovereigns to live as kings and queens do live in story-books. The present king and his family never have abused the privilege.

Looking At Life

By Erich Brandeis

Winter is here.

Don't look at your calendar to verify my statement. The very best brains in this country. Don't think that winter does not start until December. Don't wait for snow and ice.

Winter is here.

This morning the first chickadees came to our feeder and the first woodpecker tried to break its glass with his beak.

The birds and my wife know when winter has arrived.

Last week she went down to the feed store and bought her supply of seeds.

Yesterday she had her first supply of suet all ready for our winter boarders and she cleaned and dusted the feeders.

And sure enough—there they were this morning, telling us in unmistakable language that winter has arrived.

So, tomorrow the storm windows are going to be put up and anti-freeze is going to be put into the car's radiator, and the tire chains will be taken out of the garage closet, untangled and cleaned. And we too, like the birds, will be ready for winter.

I have never been able to figure out the wonder of the birds who come back year after year.

We have three feeders in our back yard. They are in a little court where strange birds would hardly be able to find them.

But, with unerring accuracy, last year's birds came back.

My wife is sure she recognized them, and she is just as sure that in another few days the nuthatches will be back and the bluejays and the several other species of which she knows the names but I do not.

Sometimes, when you see all the ugly things that happen in this world, you begin to wonder whether there is really such a thing as an omnipotent and benevolent God.

And then you see those little birds—subject to many dangers and exposed to the elements and to marauding animals. They have little of their own to protect them—no weapons, no armor, no reasoning power. Yet here they are, back safe and sound from their long journey.

Health Talks

By DR. W. A. WOMER, City Health Superintendent

REGULARITY

It seems that we are a nation of pill takers. The sale of pills and medicine is enormous.

People take medicine whether they need it or not, mostly not.

Those with medicine to sell bombard us with their propaganda and advertisements.

They keep it up till they make us sick.

They try to sell medicine or nostrums or what have you by saying that they are not drugs, they are not medicine, they are just what you call it.

Laxatives and vitamins seem to be the rage now. People would be far better off if they let themselves alone except upon a doctor's prescription.

Regularity is pretty much of a bugaboo when regulated by pills or medicine.

Pigs and cows and donkeys seem to get along pretty well without taking a dose every day.

A man should know a little more than a donkey-Hee Haw.

From Me To You

By MESEALL

Today is the day . . . hours upon hours of preparation have been made so that a little girl and a little boy may take upon themselves the most serious and binding obligation that two people of opposite sex can take upon themselves. . . . today, the 20th of November, is the wedding day in England . . . why so much has been said we can't explain. Today is very important to us but not because of the wedding.

It's much more important to us—yes we are selfish. We are nothing but an American citizen, a little frog in a little pond . . . but we are happy today, very happy today, extremely happy today, for one year ago today there arrived in our home another boy.

Looking back over the years and things we have said about our children we find that unexplainably we nicknamed the first child The Little Queen, and when the second child arrived the first time he was dubbed The Little King, and a year ago it was suggested we call this boy The Little Prince . . . royalty, yes royalty, but not with a crown or fancy robes, but with the heritage of being born in the United States of America.

Opportunity unlimited, free speech, free to worship Almighty God as they choose, the right to progress to whatever heights they desire. Royalty here in the United States belongs to everyone for we cannot forget, we shall not forget . . . all men are created equal.

So in saying happy birthday to our year old boy we go further and say happy birthday to all those born on November 20, and happy anniversary to all those who have taken on the solemn vows of matrimony on this day here in the United States, the greatest nation on earth.

Washington Calling

(By MARQUIS CHILDS)

Need To Apply Common Sense

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—To carry out the European recovery program will call for the very best brains in this country. That is one fact about which no one can possibly disagree.

It calls for economic as well as political specialists. Practical men with business experience will be called upon. There will be need, too, for those with academic and theoretical training, familiar with the trend of European economy over a long period.

This is part of the responsibility that has fallen on the United States. It goes along with the greatest accretion of economic, industrial and technological power the world has ever seen. We are only just beginning to realize what that responsibility means.

The light of that responsibility and the demand it is certain to make on our brains and our skills, we cannot afford the kind of witch-hunting that has created something like a crisis in government. A way must be found to resolve the suspicion and uncertainty which bedevil government service today.

Hard To Get Good Men

Good men, men with independent minds, will not come into government service under such circumstances. The financial sacrifice is, in most cases, too great to expect that the citizen will subject himself to having his conscience and his thoughts combed for possible heresy.

The cases that come immediately to mind are those of the 11 state department employees dismissed last week because they were believed to be disloyal or because they were "bad security risks". Even if congress eventually puts the administration of the European recovery program in a new agency, the state department is certain to need able new recruits.

Yet employees of the department are subject to dismissal without being given an opportunity to know the cause. Bert Andrews of the New York Herald Tribune performed an important service in presenting one of these cases in detail, protecting, of course, the identity of the individual involved.

The documents in that case showed how tenuous were the grounds for the man's dismissal. He was shadowed for eight months by the FBI. Yet what they found, insofar as it was revealed by the questions asked of the individual, was vague and shadowy. Most of the questions dealt with associates whom he had seen at infrequent intervals.

In June of 1943, five men and one woman were taken in an FBI raid. Two of the men were state department employees and one a naval officer whose loyalty had never hitherto been questioned. They were stripped and treated like common criminals.

Some Charges Baseless

The charges against the three proved baseless. A grand jury subsequently cleared them for lack of evidence. The damage of publicity had, of course, been done.

Just Folks

THE NEXT LEADER

When will a leader true appear, And by what signs will he be known? When one who sees with vision clear

A greater purpose than his own And, though alone, steps forth to fight For what he knows to be the right.

When one for cheers will never lie, Play false a word of praise to gain, Or promise what he must deny, Merely in office to remain, There will be found that leader great For whom all anxious people wait.

When one who serves, by every test, What he believes to be the right And for the public welfare best, Fears neither ridicule nor spite, There will have risen, one to lead These troubled times so sorely need.

Bible Thought

We have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts; knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man; but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.—II Peter 1:19, 20, 21.

Maginot Line Mentality Here

By PAUL GALLICO

There is, one discovers, a type of mentality on the loose in these United States of America which can only be compared to the Maginot mind which made our friends, the French, so contented and happy during the years before it and World War II blew up in their kisser. As you will remember, the citizens of La Belle France built themselves a so-called fortified line on the border between France and Germany to discourage the Krauts from setting out on one of their periodic looting expeditions in a Westward direction, and they then retired behind this wall, mentally and physically.

Believed Themselves Secure

As you will likewise recall, when the Nazi was ready to spread the boom of his lovely philosophy, he picked up an old American football play and instead of going through the middle, he went around Right End where the French had neglected to finish the job. But even that physical oversight might have been overcome had not the people of France been so irreparably damaged by the Maginot Mentality which went with the belief that they were secure and safe behind their wall.

The parallel to this type of idiocy is at present being expressed by the American who faces the threat of Soviet aggression against the United States with, "Aw, we can lick the tar out of those guys because we can out-produce 'em. We got the 'know-how'."

This is the Production Line state-of-mind which keeps its owner happy and contented so that he does not write and jaw his Congressman for permitting what was once the greatest Air Force in the world to be scuttled to the point where we cannot get more than seventeen B-29s into the air at one time, or fly them any distance once we get them there because we no longer make the proper gasoline for them.

Luke Warm On Necessity

The Production Line state-of-mind American feels so secure behind the imaginary wall of our wonderful "Know-how," that he is luke warm or even adverse to the necessity for universal military training in this country.

But what happens if the initial blow launched at us proves to be a knockout and our Production Potential is destroyed? How do we out-produce the enemy when our key factory cities are immobilized, all water and food supplies poisoned or contaminated as a by-product of the atomic explosion, and the ranks of the workers at the machines thinned out by death and sickness? What becomes of the "Know-how" then, and what do we do with it?

And would those loud-talking gents feel so secure if they had seen as I have the installations the Germans had set up in France for the destruction of England in old-fashioned pre-atomic days, which were neutralized just in the nick of time? Great Grief, has EVERYBODY packed up his brains?

You can bet there will be no attack on this country until the attackers are 99% certain of wiping out with the first blow, and without fear of equal retaliation America's ability to produce. It is a huge task, but it can be done and don't think the boys in the Urals aren't working on it. When the blow falls it will be because they are ready, and we are not, thanks to the Production Line type of thinking. Then it will be too late. There won't be any more production line. They Say

CHICAGO — Secretary of State Marshall warning Russia America's patience is growing thin: "Today our people have been virtually driven into a state of active resentment."

PARIS — Greek Ambassador to France Raphael commenting on establishment of the communist "choice of Belgrade as headquarters indicates . . . Soviet power is being channeled . . . toward Greece, Turkey, Italy and the entire Mediterranean zone."

WASHINGTON — Chairman Bridges of the Senate Appropriations Committee denouncing proposed dismantling of 682 German industrial plants: "I want interim aid to go through but if the American people knew the heights of stupidity of this thing they would march on Washington and revolt."

WASHINGTON — Rep. Ramey (R) Ohio, criticizing the cost of Princess Elizabeth's wedding: "An English noblewoman has received $2 million worth of jewels and finery at the same time her people sent out an appeal for help to us."

One agency recently sought to employ a young economist. He had a good combat record in World War II, with several citations for bravery under fire. But the report from the civil service commission cast doubt on him because five years before the war, when he was just out of college, he was "in association" with the "Communist-dominated" American civil liberties union. The American mission to Greece also has been hampered in assembling a suitable staff by the cumbersome security machinery in the state department.

The whole thing can be put simply. We will not be able to do the job that is ours in the world today if we do not cure ourselves of the current case of jitters. Those who are exploiting it for political purposes are playing directly into the hands of the Communists who would isolate America. It is long time to apply plan common sense.

One Man's Opinion

By Walter Kiernan

It appears definite that the U. N. General Assembly will go to Europe for its 1948 session. . . . This should allay any fears that Europe won't be there another year.

However we are not surprised. Many visitors to New York say "It's a nice town to visit but I wouldn't live there if you gave me the place."

The only surprise is that Philadelphia didn't bid for that convention too . . . and get some real excitement.

But the delegates promise to return by 1950 when their permanent peace headquarters should be ready. Even a temporary peace should be ready by then.

No one knows exactly where the U. N. will go but the host country will be expected to provide provisions, personnel and pickets.

Our attitude should be one of selfishness. . . . We have had Vishinsky and Gromyko for ourselves too long.

A householder bought a tiny cactus which has grown to a height of 12 feet. Now he's stuck with it.

The World and the Mud Puddles

WHAT IS THE USE?

Adoption and fulfillment of the Marshall plan for Europe is going to bring us the test of dividing with Europe a large number of items. A summary of European needs aside from food and fuel, paralleling our own requirements runs something like this:

Fertilizer requirements will make fertilizer scarcer and more costly to our farmers.

Steel requirements, along with tin plate, will take greatly increased production by our plants, possibly creating domestic shortages. It is noted that Germany, France and Austria have idle mills of several millions of tons capacity, lacking in fuel supply.

Europe needs half a billion dollars' worth of electrical generators and turbines, while United States plants are behind in domestic orders.

Wants Freight Cars
Europe wants half a billion dollars' worth of freight cars, while American railroads are suffering desperate shortages of cars.

Oil machinery exceeding a half billion is wanted. United States firms are hard pressed to meet home demands.

Mining machinery is needed to the amount of two hundred twenty million dollars, while our own needs still are not met.

Demands for food and fuel, of course, already are running far ahead of our available surplus.

The idea of the Marshall Plan, primarily, is presumed to be to help Europe rehabilitate itself industrially and agriculturally and thereby become self-sustaining. To do this, help must come from the United States in the form of these various items of machinery, equipment, transportation facilities and fertilizer.

It is possible, under favorable conditions, for American industry to expand production to a point where it can supply these European wants and at the same time take care of the domestic demands. To do so, however, will require utilization of managerial ingenuity and sincere productive co-operation on the part of labor.

Labor and tax problems do not offer much hope for the attainment of these hopes.

Labor-Management Advisory Committee Session December 9

Decline Comment On Resignation Of George Mueller, Seek Strong Arbitrator Board

HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—Gov. James H. Duff's labor-management advisory committee is scheduled to hold its third meeting at Harrisburg, December 9.

The committee, assigned by the governor to submit a roster of at least 12 arbitrators from which he may select a 12-member panel, recessed Monday after considering approximately 200 potential appointees.

The arbitration panel will aid in settlement of labor disputes in public utilities under the state's new anti-utility strike law.

Following the meeting, Chairman H. K. Breckenridge, of Pittsburgh, vice president of the West Penn Power Company, announced the group had studied "approximately 200 names of prominent citizens, educators and experienced arbitrators" for possible appointment to the roster. The committee made only tentative decisions, he explained.

Mueller Resigns
Breckenridge and committee secretary James L. McDewitt, president of the Pennsylvania Federation of Labor (AFL), declined to comment on the resignation of labor representative George L. Mueller of Pittsburgh from the committee.

Mueller, whose Independent Association of Employees of Duquesne Light and Associated Companies went on a 27-day power strike a year ago, refused Duff's appointment declaring he was emphatically opposed to "compulsory arbitration."

VETS SUPPORT SEALS
HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—(INS)—The state Veterans of Foreign Wars today threw its support behind the 1947 Christmas Seal drive terming the campaign against tuberculosis "one of the most worthy causes in which we can join."

Congress Control Of Tariff Rates May Be Sought

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—(INS)

—Possibility of a congress-controlled commission to handle reciprocal trade tariff reductions shaped up today as legislators studied the new Geneva agreement under which the United States will make more than 3500 cuts in import duties.

A GOP leader said privately that "several suggestions" along this line are being put forth. One would bring the present tariff commission more closely under congressional influence. Another would set up a wholly new body to make reciprocal trade agreements with other countries.

Rep. Knutson (R) Minn., chairman of the ways and means committee, put members of his staff to work making a study of the new agreement as two western Republican senators—Robertson, Wyo., and Dworshak, Idaho—denounced the Geneva act.

Senator Says Congress Not Intending To 'Short Change Our Own People'

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Chairman Bridges (R) N. H., announced that the Senate appropriations committee will make a thorough inventory of food available for the interim European aid program to assure that Congress does not "deliberately short change our own people."

Bridges said his committee was "unanimous" in deciding to call in government, farm organization, grain market and grain user representatives—along with advisers from overseas—for public hearings to begin in three or four days.

The Republican appropriations chairman emphasized that his committee's approach was "not one of opposition or hostility" but a case of "putting first things first."

Largest Mirror Ever Made Makes Last Leg Of Trip

By LYLE ABBOTT
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

ESCONDIDO, Cal., Nov. 20.—(INS)—The $600,000 mirror with which science expects to find answers to the riddles of the universe on Wednesday began the last leg of its 160-mile journey to the $6 million dollar observatory atop Mount Palomar.

Thousands of curious lined the highways as the giant mirror, twice as large as any similar one ever made, began its trip from the California Institute of Technology in Pasadena.

After a night's stopover at Escondido, the caravan of armed guards, reporters, photographers and technicians moving ahead of the mirror equipage, was only a short uphill pull from its final scene of activity in the giant dome of Palomar Mountain Observatory. Escondido—in the language of the Rio Grande means "hidden"—but today this little prosperous orchard town was not hidden. It was, rather, a focal point of world interest.

Many Spectators

At many points along the highway, schools had been dismissed and children marshalled by their teachers, massed by the curbs to see the huge gray box, riding in stately dignity behind the clattering tractor-truck, go by on its route to destiny.

The roads were cleared by the magic red spot lights on motorcycles ridden by the truly uniformed state highway patrol.

No untoward incident marked the progress.

At the first major stop, the trailer carrying the valuable piece of scientific equipment was halted at Pavilion Creek, not far from Irvine. This little creek in English is "Chicken Hawk Creek" and its bridge was the first one that the engineers suspected was not stout enough to bear the enormous weight of 140,000 pounds, comprising the mirror, the cell and the trailer.

There the engineers placed sixteen additional rubber tired wheels beneath the trailer, so as to distribute its weight over more axles and more road space and thus insure a safe passage.

The dollies carrying the extra wheels were to be used again on some creek crossings between this overnight stop point and the lofty destination atop the mountain.

ney—back home, singing for joy and pert and frisky as the year before.

Someone must have looked after them. Someone must have guided them to wherever they go in summer and back to where it is safe for them in winter.

And, someone, too, must have given my wife the kindness and love that makes her feed them and look after them, just as she feeds and looks after half the dogs and cats in the neighborhood.

Sometimes I wish that she wouldn't be such a "softie" for everything that walks and flies. But then I say to myself, "Who am I to ensure her for something that surely must be pleasant to the eyes of God?"

Yes, winter is here, but there is never winter in the hearts of those who love.

GROOM'S FATHER AS BEST MAN

Question: Would it be proper to have my father for my best man? If so, who should accompany my mother to the church?

Answer: Your father may, correctly, be your best man. This very often happens. Any other member of your family may accompany your mother to the church, or she may go alone.

Question: (1) When a man and a woman attend a movie where there are no ushers, should the man lead the way down the aisle or should the woman? (2) When a man and a woman go to a restaurant where there is no head waiter to show them to a table, should the man or the woman lead the way?

Answer: (1) The man should precede her down the aisle and let her go first to her seat. (2) He should lead the way and hold out her chair to seat her before going to his place at the table.

Question: For "company" dinner are demi-tasse cups always used? Does the hostess or the maid serve? Must coffee be served in the living room?

Answer: Yes, demi-tasse cups are always used for after-dinner coffee by all who have them. Either the hostess or the maid may serve. Service may be at the dinner table or in the living room.

Question: I have been married for 18 years and would like to know the proper monogram for my sheets and pillowcases. Should I use my initials—K.A.R. or my husband's initials—V.O.R.

Answer: Your initials—K.A.R. Question: I am a junior in high school and am going to have some visiting cards made. Am I too young for "Miss" to precede my name?

Answer: You are, indeed, entitled to the use of "Miss".

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly mail personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, self-addressed envelopes.

Hints On Etiquette

A tuxedo is worn upon informal occasions after six o'clock. It is appropriate at the theater, most dinners and informal parties, including restaurant dinners. Full dress is for formal occasions, such as the opera, evening weddings, and dinner invitations which are worded in the third person; also for balls or formal evening entertainments.

In the old days, warship interiors were red so the blood wouldn't show.

Everett Hoffman Gets Prize Award

(Special To The News)
PITTSBURGH, Nov. 20—Everett C. Hoffman of New Castle, a senior in the department of painting and design at Carnegie Institute of Technology, has been awarded a Martin B. Leisser prize of $40 for his report on studies undertaken during the summer. It has been announced by B. Kenneth Johnstone, director of the College of Fine Arts.

Hoffman's prize is one of three offered to students in painting and design for "constructive use and intelligent appraisal" of their summer activity which may or may not relate directly to art. He submitted an illustrated "Discourse on Metaphysics" based on studies in philosophy begun in the Orient and continued during the past summer.

GOLF RECEIPTS $8,387.70
Golf receipts at Sylvan Heights for 1947 season totaled $8,387.70, according to City Controller W. A. Moore. The season was delayed until May this year while in 1946 it started in April.

In 1947 state legislatures, 211 women have won seats.

Declares War On Racketeers

Governor Of California Declares Gangsters Will Not Be Tolerated In State

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Nov. 20.—(INS)—Underworld operators seeking lush fields in California were confronted today with an ultimatum from Gov. Earl Warren declaring that gangsters "absolutely will not be tolerated" in the state.

Warren, who only last week announced his candidacy for the 1948 GOP presidential nomination, uttered his declaration of war on racketeers during an impromptu speech at the final session of his statewide crime conference in Sacramento.

To Battle Gangsters
California's chief executive promised an audience of some 1000 civic-minded men and women that he and his five newly-created crime commissions were prepared to destroy any resistance to their battle on organized gangsterism.

He stressed as the chief targets of the state's anti-crime campaign the so-called masterminds of the underworld, though he made it plain that their "stooges" will not escape retribution.

Warren said one of the chief weapons he and his crime commissions have trained on "criminal bigshots" as well as "the dupes who do their dirty work" is California's comparatively recent addition to the penal code. This section in 1943, makes an offense a felony when two or more persons conspire to commit a misdemeanor. Warren declared.

"This statute is rarely used for ordinary misdemeanors, but it is the achilles heel of organized crime and racketeering."

Record Demand For Gasoline

HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—(INS)—A report issued today by the State Revenue Department revealed record-breaking demands for motor vehicle and aviation gasoline.

Secretary David W. Harris announced that in nine months of 1947 motor vehicles consumed 1,331,679,902 gallons of gasoline, an increase of 110,865,666 over a similar period last year.

Aviation fuel sales were up 20 per cent, he added. Airplanes used 7,153,853 gallons in nine months of this year, an increase of 1,223,925 over a similar period in 1946.

Ex-Navy Gunner Is $3,000 Richer

HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—(INS)—A former Navy gunner of Harrisburg was $3,000 richer today for his part in salvaging a German freighter early in the war.

Joel R. Berkebile, 25, formerly of Somerset, was awarded the $3,000 for 12 day's duty as a member of a skeleton crew which brought the captured freighter from South Atlantic waters to Puerto Rico.

Berkebile was serving as a gunner aboard the light cruiser USS Omaha in November 1941 when it waylaid the freighter near the Equator.

AMABILE-STITT

CHURCH WEDDING

Miss Margaret Elizabeth Amabile, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pasquale Amabile, Sr., of 310 East Home street, and Charles Stitt, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stitt, Sr., of 1803 Pennsylvania avenue, were united in marriage in St. Vitus church, Monday, November 17.

Vows were exchanged at 9 a. m. before an altar embellished with ferns and flowers. Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita officiated, using the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a gown of white satin, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice, embroidered with seed pearls, and a bouffant skirt ending in a long train. Her fingertip veil fell from a seed pearl crown, and she carried a prayer book, marked with three orchids with streamers. Her only jewelry was a rhinestone necklace and bracelet, a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Jean Urian as maid of honor, wore a gown of green net over satin, sweetheart neckline and bustle, with a yellow Dutch cap and carried yellow talisman roses. Pasquale Amabile, Jr., brother of the bride, served as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served in the Casa Society. A reception for 300 guests was held in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Stitt departed on a wedding trip down south, and upon their return will reside at 310 East Home street. Mrs. Stitt is a graduate of the Maison Felix School and proprietor of Margaret's Beauty salon.

Mr. Stitt is a graduate of Shenango High school, and is employed at the Shenango Pottery company.

LOWERY AUXILIARY

ELECTS OFFICERS

MEMBERS GATHER

Tuesday evening, the Rebekah Chapter of the First United Presbyterian met in the home of Mrs. Herbert Warnock, Norwood avenue, with Mrs. Hasson Polley, Mrs. Grace White, and Mrs. Fred Walrath, associate hostesses. Dr. S. E. Irvine spoke on Temperance and Reform and said that temperance means self-control although the traffic in alcohol concerns us most. He went on to say "We believe the Bible teaches total abstinence. I do not know of any one thing doing more damage to mankind than strong drink. Such institutions as the Yale Institute on Alcoholism says that alcoholism is a disease and I believe the best way to stop a disease is to stop the cause of the disease. Restrictive legislation is not making much headway and will not make much headway until there is a definite change in public opinion regarding the evil of strong drink. Two agencies have done much toward doing away with the traffic in alcohol. They are the WCTU and the Anti-Saloon League."

Dr. Irvine was given a rising vote of thanks for his splendid talk and Mrs. Irvine was presented with a token of appreciation for the help she had given the society as its pastor's wife.

At the business meeting, Mrs. J. R. Leonard stated 5 boxes of used clothing had been sent to the Mission School at Frenchburg, Ky.

December meeting of the society will be their annual birthday dinner.

LOCAL NURSE GIVEN

BON VOYAGE PARTY

At the Pioneer Lodge, Youngstown, there was a gathering of doctors, and nurses of the North Side Hospital of that city recently. The occasion was a bon voyage event, honoring Mrs. Charles Hefner, a nurse at the hospital, who has left to join her husband, Lieut. Charles A. Hefner, stationed in Redensburg, Germany.

There was a mock wedding presented, also games and reminiscing during the event. A splendid lunch was served.

The honored guest was the recipient of many lovely gifts. Mrs. Hefner, nee Donna Lou Davies, is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Davies of 507 Martin street. She has sailed on the "Thomas Barry," from New York.

WOMEN'S GROUP PLANS

CHRISTMAS PARTY

At the First Methodist church, members of the King's Daughters Bible class assembled for a twelve dinner, on Wednesday afternoon, with 19 present. Devotions were led by Mrs. J. N. Kerr.

Business session was in charge of president, Mrs. T. A. Myers. Committee reported that assistance had been given to three needy families, and second duffel bag of clothing had been packed for overseas relief.

A Christmas party was planned for Wednesday, December 17, in the home of Mrs. J. N. Kerr of 315 East Lincoln avenue.

Hearing Date Set For Air Squabble

Court To Hear Reynolds
Complaint Against Aviation Companies On November 24

OTHER EVENTS IN COURT HOUSE

November 24 at 9 a. m. has been set as the time and date for the hearing of the equity suit filed by H. M. and Leah Reynolds against the Wilson Aviation company and the Penn Aero Service. Some weeks ago Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds, who reside near the New Castle airport, complained that planes were flying too close to the roof of their home, that the noise made them nervous and they lost sleep through it.

In an answer filed by the defendants they deny most of the allegations and say that no relief is necessary. Judge W. Walter Braham will hear the case on November 24.

EXPENSE ACCOUNTS FILED

Candidates who ran for office on November 4 are beginning to file their expense accounts. On Tuesday the following made their reports: Clair M. Uber, candidate for city council on the Democratic ticket, filed expenses of $172.45. County Controller Andrew M. Dodds, who was elected on both tickets, filed an account of $150. Don I. Neal, county treasurer-elect, filed an account of $275. Harvey B. Bush, county commissioner-elect, filed an account of $205. John A. Edgar, re-elected prothonotary and clerk of courts on both tickets, filed an account of $275.

BRAHAM IN HARRISBURG

Judge W. Walter Braham left for Harrisburg on Tuesday where he will attend a meeting of the joint state government committee.

BUSH AT MEETING

Harvey B. Bush, elected on the Republican ticket as a county commissioner, sat in at the meeting of the county commissioners on Tuesday morning. He will take office early in January.

Believe Mother Arranged For Suffocation In Suicide Act,
Had Been Ill

CHESTER, Pa., Nov. 20.—(INS)—Police disclosed today what they believed was the suicide of a young Chester mother who suffocated her four-month-old son by coal gas.

The bodies of Mrs. Stella Ann Jones, 30, and Howard E. Jones, were found by the husband in the cellar of their home at suburban Parkside.

Detectives said the cellar door was closed and coal gas was pouring from the coal heater. A suicide note was reportedly found beside the mother's body on the floor.

Had Been Ill
Deputy Coroner John J. Clancy stated that the note explained Mrs. Jones had been ill and unable to take care of her children—the baby, Shirley 7, and Aubrey, 11.

As police reconstructed the scene, the mother opened both the damper and door of the furnace and piled coal on the roaring fire. The baby lay in his coach which had been trundled downstairs.

No illuminating gas is used in the Jones home. The bodies were found when the husband returned from work and was met by the two surviving children who were unable to get into the house.

Expectant Mother Killed By Fumes In Trailer Home

Twenty-Year-Old Bride Of Ohio
State Student Dies, Husband
In Hospital

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 20.—(INS)—The 20-year-old bride of an Ohio State University G.I. student died Wednesday after she and her husband were overcome by gas fumes in their trailer home.

The dead woman was Mrs. Louise Lenert of McArthur, O. Her husband, Willy, 22, an engineering college sophomore, was in "poor" condition at University hospital. The couple was discovered unconscious in their bed in the trailer last night in the trailer camp where they lived. Neighbors investigated after Lenert and his wife had not been seen all day yesterday.

Mrs. Lenert was an expectant mother and was attended by a doctor after midnight yesterday morning.

Men Eligible For Officer Training In U.S. Air Corps

Men Who Possess the Proper
Qualifications Can Now Enroll
For Air Corps Training

Cpl. Pete A. Colia of the local US army and US air force recruiting station announced today that an air force enlisted man or a civilian who holds the following qualifications is eligible for OCS training: 20 1/2 to 28 years of age, high school graduate, physically qualified and of excellent character and health.

Cpl. Colia stated that any man with the above qualifications may obtain an application blank from the US army and US air forces recruiting station, room 202, Post Office building, New Castle, Pa., or write to Hq., United States Air Force, Washington, D. C.

After receipt of the application, the applicant will be notified when and where to appear for educational and physical examinations, and for interview with an officer interview board.

Once one has successfully passed the examinations he will be so advised. The application will then be forwarded—approved—to Hq., US Air Force, and be placed on an eligible list. Quota for each OCS class is filled from the eligible list of candidates.

For further information concerning the above or enlistments in the US army and US air forces, contact your local recruiting station, room 202, Post Office building, New Castle, or phone 7593.

Will Have Roles In Union Play

Sally Majestic Robert Korby

Although not playing leading roles in "The House Without a Key," the Charlie Chan three-act mystery at Union High school, Miss Sally Lou Majestic and Robert Korby have important supporting roles.

The junior-senior play will be performed Friday evening, November 21, at 8 p. m.

Sally Lou Majestic, as Carlota Egan, and Robert Korby as John Quincy Wintership, offer the romantic interest in the play. Miss Majestic is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Majestic, R.D. 2, Conkle avenue. She is a senior and active in the Chorus, U-Hi-News staff, Otopian staff and member of the cast of Seventeen, and Y-Teens.

Robert Korby, also a senior is active of Chorus, Boys' Octet, cast of Seventeen, Hi-Y club, editor of U-Hi News staff. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Korby of R.D. 2, Lowellville.

Brisk Bidding At Junior Stock Show

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 20—(INS)—Brisk bidding was expected today at the sale of 646 purebred lambs and cattle, exhibited at the 15th Annual Junior Fat Stock Show in Pittsburgh.

Record high prices were expected before the animals already adjudged champions are sold. The stock, exhibited by members of 4-H and Future Farmers, Club members from Pennsylvania, Ohio, Maryland and West Virginia, included 436 beebes and 210 lambs.

Clifford Teets, Jr., of Rochester, Pa., was the biggest winner of the show. He won both the grand championship and reserve championship for baby beebes, and then added both breed championships in Angus and Hereford.

Jimmy Walker, 14, of Union, W.

Va., repeated his "double" of 1946 by winning the grand championship with his pen of three lambs and the grand championship for individual lamb.

Huge Crowd To Hear Margaret Truman In Washington Concert

By MARTHA KEARNEY
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Margaret Truman's nimble coloratura trills are getting solid support from the bell-like obligato of a box office cash register right in the shadow of the White House. Jubilant attaches at Constitution Hall, where Miss Truman is to be presented on Dec. 22 in her first capital concert, tagged her today as the best Christmas present the Hall ever had.

A girl presiding over box office operations said excitedly:

Most Terrific Debut
"This is the most terrific debut anyone ever made in this town. There's never been anything like it."

"The day they announced the concert tickets began to zoom out of here like jet planes in a cross-country dash. There was a line outside the box office for three days."

"We had several hundred mail orders to fill immediately and they kept coming in solidly after that. We refused all telephone orders."

"It's more than a month before the concert now and all we have left are a few seats in the back of the orchestra at $2.40. Those are the cheapest of the orchestra seats."

She pointed out that the gold rush at the box office could not be attributed to the scheduled appearance of the soprano's proud parents, the president and Mrs. Truman.

Capacity Audiences
Previous appearances at the Hall by the chief executive and first lady have never incited any stampede for tickets on the part of the citizenry.

Capacity audiences, on the other hand, have been reported at all of the concert appearances made by Miss Truman on her current cross-country tour.

Asked how the outlook for Miss Truman's concert compares with that of any other neophyte soprano making a local debut, the box office lady laughed. She said:

"You can say there's never been anything like it and leave it at that."

Milk Strike Enters Fifth Day, Scranton Is Feeling Pinch

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 20.—(INS)—Scranton's five dairies today pooled their meagre milk supplies for hospital and institutional deliveries as the walkout of 450 dairy workers entered its fifth day.

Mayor James T. Hanlon immediately called a meeting with his cabinet to discuss ways and means to keep milk flowing to hospitals and to safeguard the city's health.

Dairy officials announced that milk deliveries had halted entirely in Scranton and in 80 per cent of Lackawanna county.

Workers' representatives and dairy owners failed to agree last night on wage after a seven-hour conference, it was reported. The dairy employees were seeking a $10 weekly wage boost.

Former McKeesport School Head Dies

McKEESPORT, Pa., Nov. 20.—(INS)—Dr. John Burdette Richey, former superintendent of schools in McKeesport, and father of Helen Richey, famous aviatrix who died early this year, died in a Cairo, Ill., hospital yesterday, relatives in McKeesport have been informed. He was 83.

Dr. Richey was an instructor in mathematics at Allegheny College, principal of Phillipsburg schools and superintendent of New Brighton schools before he became head of the McKeesport school system in June, 1902. He retired in 1935.

J. Smith Sharp Dies At Sharon

Well-Known Funeral Director Expires Suddenly Wednesday In Buhl Hospital

Local friends and relatives have received a message, telling of the sudden death of J. Smith Sharp, 614 East State street, Sharon. Mr. Sharp, died Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock after a brief illness in the Buhl hospital. Mr. Sharp, a well known funeral director in Sharon, had been in that business for 35 years. He was a brother of Elmer Sharp, of New Wilmington. Born in New Bedford, he later as a child moved to New Wilmington and lived there until taking up residence in Sharon. He was well-known in New Castle.

Survivors in addition to his brother in New Wilmington include his wife and daughter, another brother, Rufus L. Sharp, Fairchance, Pa., and a sister, Miss Nettie Sharp, of Radium Springs, New Mexico.

Funeral services will be conducted Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from his home with interment to follow in Oakwood cemetery.

Twelve Injured As Elevateds Crash In Chicago Station

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Twelve persons were injured today when a single car local crashed into the rear of a four-car North Shore train standing at the Adams and Wabash elevated station in Chicago's loop.

The injured were rushed to St. Luke's Hospital. Among the injured was a mother with a baby in her arms.

Frank Abernathy, 33, negro motorman of the local, told police Sgt. Edwin O'Malley:

"I saw the North Shore train standing there, and I applied the brakes, but I guess I didn't set them fast enough."

The wooden local was badly damaged, but the steel-built North Shore train was only dented and scratched.

Indianapolis Negro Admits New Murder

Robert A. Watts, 25, Tells Of Killing Mrs. Mabel Merrifield, Halloween Eve

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Marion county authorities announced today that Robert A. Watts, 25-year-old Negro, has admitted the murder of another Indianapolis housewife, Mrs. Mabel Merrifield, prominent clubwoman.

Watts, an Indianapolis city employee, was indicted yesterday in the murder of Mrs. Mary Lois Burney.

Sheriff Al Magenheimer said Watts admitted he killed Mrs. Merrifield with a butcher knife in her home last Halloween eve when she resisted his advances.

Mrs. Merrifield was the wife of Hugh Merrifield, former deputy attorney general of Indiana.

In 1942 John A. Roebeling introduced into America the idea of substituting wire rope for hemp on inclined planes of the Allegheny Portage railroad, then connecting the eastern and western divisions of the Pennsylvania canal. From then on wire rope was gradually substituted for hemp rope.

GROUP ACTIVITIES MARK 4-H CLUB WORK

4-H Achievement Week, called attention to several activities of the clubs. Local leaders of the Home Economics Clubs met twice to discuss methods of advancing 4-H Club work.

Officers of the local 4-H Clubs met at the Court House in June to learn the duties of the various officers. The clubs of the county held their annual picnic at the Grove City Park, with 250 members and friends present. 4-H Club members took part in 4-H Club Camps, and 4-H Club Week.

Members of the Home Economics 4-H club held a county-wide round-up in New Castle in August. Each member exhibited the work which she had done as part of her project.

Eleven 4-H Pig Club members showed thirteen animals in the Pittsburgh Pig Club Round-Up in August. Members of the vegetable clubs held Round-Ups in their local communities, while livestock Club members will take part in the Pittsburgh Livestock Show on November 18, 19 and 20.

Strangely enough, Fleet Admiral William F. Halsey, Jr., joined the fleet in 1904 as a passed midshipman aboard the old battleship Missouri and aboard that vessel witnessed the climax of his career, the signing of the Japanese surrender.

Archbishop Of York Sends Message To Princess And Philip

LONDON, Nov. 20.—(INS)—The Archbishop of York addressed a special message to Princess Elizabeth and her bridegroom the Duke of Edinburgh on the occasion of their wedding today emphasizing that "love must always be unselfish."

The second highest prelate of the Anglican Church said in part: "Love is the true secret of happy married life . . .

"You must always be true and faithful to one another until death parts . . .

"You will learn to bear one another's burdens as you walk the road of life, making the journey together with happiness and hope . . . making your home an oasis of peace and love . . ."

Meanwhile, the four stores reported a drop in business the past week. All four are being picketed by the warehousemen.

FAIL TO REACH STRIKE AGREEMENT

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Officers of AFL warehousemen will get together today with management and with Federal Labor Conciliator William F. Aspe in an effort to settle their 13-day strike against four large Pittsburgh department stores.

The group met for three hours last night, but failed to reach an agreement. The union is seeking a 20-cent hourly wage boost.

Meanwhile, the four stores reported a drop in business the past week. All four are being picketed by the warehousemen.

SET TRIAL FOR 12 IN TAX EVASION

WHEELING, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Trial of 12 persons on charges of tax evasion today had been set by Judge W. E. Baker in United States district court in Wheeling for Dec. 1.

All 12 pleaded not guilty yesterday to the charges. Seven men were charged with failure to pay taxes in wholesale liquor dealings and five women from Wheeling's "Tenderloin" district were charged with income tax evasions.

All were indicted recently by a special federal grand jury.

Widow Talks Two Would-Be Robbers
Out Of Intention

LANCASTER, Pa., Nov. 20.—(INS)—A Lancaster widow today routed two armed, masked holdup men with a brief but effective sermon when they invaded her home.

Mrs. Eleanor K. Mertz told police two men threatened to kill her if she refused to "hand over" her money.

Informing the men she didn't have any money Mrs. Mertz warned:

"If you kill me, the Lord will surely see to it that you both are caught and punished."

The robbers fled empty handed, she said.

Johnson Triplets Have Ninth Birthday

Nine years ago, on November 19, 1938, triplets were born in the New Castle Hospital, and yesterday, Wednesday afternoon the same triplets—Clara Mae, Gertrude Ann and Thomas Matthew Johnson, were honored at a lovely surprise birthday party at the Terrace Avenue school.

At 2 o'clock, children of the fourth grade, sang Happy Birthday, as the triplets entered the room, and afterwards an informal party was enjoyed by all the youngsters.

A brief program was presented, and a colorful Polish dance given, after which, Rev. F. V. V. Stan- cewski spoke briefly to the triplets and children.

Also present were Dr. Nathan N. Ginsburg, of the New Castle hospital staff, who delivered the triplets nine years ago, and also Sister M. Borgia of the obstetrical department of the hospital. Dr. Ginsburg extended birthday greetings, and urged the children to obey their elders in church and home.

Other songs were sung, and then birthday refreshments were served buffet style to the children and honored guests. Party decorations were used, and the triplets were presented with many gifts from their friends.

Sister M. Pauline is the instructor of the school.

U. N. Assembly In Final Phase Of 1947 Session

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(U. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

FLUSHING MEADOWS, N. Y., Nov. 20.—The general assembly entered its final phase of its 1947 session today, tackling the hotly debated problem of the treatment of Indians in South Africa.

The 57-nation assembly has high hopes of winding up its business within a week, with all issues settled save that of Palestine.

Britain is expected to clarify its position on the partition of Palestine during the day when Sir Alexander Cadogan will present supplementary views of his government to the Palestine committee of the assembly.

The last days of the plenary session are expected to be stormy ones on the assumption that the Arab states will fight bitterly against the proposed partition of Palestine into independent Jewish and Arab states.

of New Castle, and Lions from Meadville, Erie, Ellwood City, Farrell, and New Castle.

District Governor Arthur W. Meek of District 14-F, past president of the New Castle club, introduced Mr. Fisher, who proved an outstanding speaker. He spoke of the substantial growth of Lions International, which now numbers 6,300 clubs in 19 countries, with 330,000 members. Four years ago, he stated, Lions International had only 150,000 members.

He pointed out some of the fine things Lions clubs are doing to make life more pleasant and livable for handicapped people, which makes Lionism worthwhile. In his own city of Queenston, he stated, the Lions have organized a club for the blind women, who meet weekly and have an enjoyable two-hour program. In another Canadian city, Lions were responsible for providing a community village, where those forced to retire on old age pensions, and who cannot sustain themselves, live in cottages provided for them.

These and many other projects which make Lions an organization for good throughout the world, were related as the members of the new club gained an insight into what Lionism means, as well as providing an inspiration for some of the older clubs.

Rev. Harry A. Silvius, president of the new club, accepted the charter, and himself proved an entertaining and humorous speaker, but added a serious vein with the promise that the new club would take as its motto, "Forward today as opportunity affords," in an effort to build a bigger and better Volant, and that the members would devote their efforts to being mutually helpful in the community.

Entertainment was furnished by the Cunningham male quartet, three of whom are residents of the Volant community, composed of Joseph Thompson, Carter Johnson, James Kirkpatrick, and Stewart Cunningham, with Miss Carrie Shaffer at the piano. Pep singing during the evening was led by "Bill" McCombs of the New Castle club.

Before concluding, President Glenn McCracken of the New Castle club presented Rev. Silvius with a gavel and bell to keep order, a set of Lion song books, and a set of flags, which represent the various countries in the order that Lionism was established.

The invocation was given by

Lion Harvey Bush of the New Castle club, and the meeting concluded with a Lions roar, followed by the pledge of allegiance.

New Club Officers

The officers of the new club are: President, Rev. Harry A. Silvius; first vice president, P. M. Cox; second vice president, Paul G. Shaw; third vice president, Warren G. Wilkin; secretary, A. B. Weisz; treasurer, Harold T. Shaw; tall twister, E. M. Hilliard; lion tamer, Homer D. Moose; chaplain, Rev. William A. Lloyd; charter night chairman, Ralph Cunningham; directors, O. J. Allen, Walter Lesnett, James N. McConnell, Charles Miller.

Other charter members include: Elmer E. Brown, Frank Barcheck, James M. Byers, Robert S. Carter, Clarence O. Collins, Stanley Cotton, R. J. Drake, John Greer, William R. Holzhauser, Robert W. Miller, Gordon M. Potter, John C. Sankey, R. Woods Scott, Don Silvius, Wendell A. Shaw, Henry O. Sholler, Kenneth W. Smith, and Raymond W. Thompson.

Organization of the club was brought about when Lion Sam Rashid was informed that Rev. Silvius, the new president, had been a member of Lions elsewhere, and paid him a fraternal visit. This resulted in discussion of the possibility of organizing a club in Volant, and Chairman Earl T. Ramsey of the extension committee and Mr. Rashid laid the foundation by meeting with men of the community interested in the project.

Youth Recovers After Accident; Held By Officers

John Angel, age 16, who escaped from a Boy's Vocational school at Lansing, Mich., and was injured when a stolen car was wrecked at Rose Point, October 19, was released yesterday from the Jameson Memorial hospital, taken to the county jail and is being held for Lansing authorities, on a charge of auto theft.

A companion, Ralph Schnupp, 16, who likewise fled the institution and who also was in the wreck, was returned to Lansing recently to face a charge of auto larceny.

Angel was unconscious for 10 days in the hospital.

According to state police, the boys after fleeing the home, stole an auto in Detroit, wrecked and abandoned it at Delta, O., and stole another car, which was wrecked at Rose Point. It went down an embankment and struck a tree.

TRINITY GUILD TEA

WEDNESDAY EVENING

In the guild room of Trinity Episcopal church Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, Trinity Junior guild entertained with a tea in honor of Mrs. Ralph Hovencamp, wife of Trinity church's new rector. Mrs. Hovencamp wore an orchid as a corsage sent to her by the guild.

Following the business meeting the Melody Sextette under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Perdue sang four selections. Mrs. Dora Dugan, program chairman, introduced the sextette. The program received warm applause and a corsage was presented to each member of the sextette.

Rev. Hovencamp addressed the group in regard to its activities during the coming year and announced a corporate communion for the guild on Sunday, November 23 at 8 a. m.

During business, over which Mrs. Joseph W. Pearson presided, plans were discussed in regard to a box social to take place in conjunction with a special fund-raising event on December 12.

Devotionals were led by Mrs. Jean Bailey, who offered a prayer for Thanksgiving.

Tea was served from a large banquet table, beautifully appointed and centered with an arrangement of gourds and bittersweet. Yellow candles lighted the table at which Mrs. Joseph W. Pearson and Mrs. Dudley Arnold presided.

Miss Elizabeth Reis was chairman of arrangements for the tea.

Mrs. B. Tanski

Dies At Lorain, O.

Mrs. Anna Laskowski, 1107 Howard Way, has received a message telling of the death of her daughter, Mrs. Jenny Tanski, of Lorain, O. Death occurred Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Tanski was well known in this city, as she lived here before her marriage and often visited in New Castle.

Besides her husband, Benjamin Tanski, a son, and her two daughters in Lorain, she is survived by the following in New Castle: mother, Mrs. Laskowski, four brothers, John, Steve, Joseph and Andrew Laskowski, and a sister, Mrs. Katherine Alduk.

Funeral services and burial will be held in Lorain, O., Saturday morning.

Gelder Asks That Local Police Aid Liquor Enforcing

Chairman Of Liquor Board Asks For Municipality Cooperation in Violations

HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Chairman Frederick T. Gelder of the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board today urged local authorities to aid the agency in enforcement of the state liquor code.

Gelder told members of the Retail Liquor Dealers of Pennsylvania last night at Harrisburg that the control agency returns approximately $5,500,000 annually to municipalities and suggested local police could use the funds to help enforce the law.

Staff Too Small

He pointed out that the small staff of LCB agents found it difficult to police thoroughly the thousands of liquor and beer establishments in the state. He indicated enforcement on the local level would be welcomed.

He advised the liquor dealers that each has an "interest" in whether his competitor obeys the law. In many communities the public voted out liquor and beer because a few violators aroused the ire of the citizenry, Gelder asserted.

HIGH EMPLOYMENT

HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—Non-agricultural employment in Pennsylvania during September stood within 1,000 of the all-time high of 3,572,000 set in December, 1946, the department of labor and industry reported Tuesday.

IN THE OPEN

The week end turned up gray and gloomy, with a cold rain falling lazily out of an overcast that seemed to rest on the housetops. The morning fog lay close along the creek bottoms like a tremendous ghostly python stretched sinuously across the countryside. The air was redolent with the tangy aroma of burning railway ties left smoldering alongside the tracks by the "paddy" crews.

When mid-November turns on the spigot the countryman knows that the twilight of the year is at hand. Soon the timberlands will be deep in slumber—tucked in snugly for three months of rest and meditation in preparation for the wondrous awakening into a bright new morning.

Dismal Trails

The countryman also knows that there are no wayside trails so damp and dismal as those of a sodden November afternoon. He dons half boots and slicker and crawls bravely through the fences on a cross-field roundup to see what he can see. Hardly 30 feet beyond his own fencerows he blunders through a tall weed patch. A great poke weed, clammy and dripping, slips off a berry cane and slaps him full in the face.

The knee-high growth of wild aster and golden rod in the abandoned old-fields has soaked up the fall rains like a sponge. Between the boot tops and the bottom of the slicker there's a two-inch area quite vulnerable. After an hour or so, despite the boots, old Neb Nose is soaked from the knees down, and finally absorbs so much moisture from wading around in the weeds that he "squishes" audibly in the boots with each step.

During this November "twilight" the countryside stretches and yawns and battens down all hatches for the long night ahead. Tiny cork dams seal off every leaf scar. Provisions are stored away in every root and seed. The steady drizzle tamps the leaf mulch blanket snug and warm about the roots along the forest aisles. Bass and pickerel seek out the "bigger" water. Mr. Gumpox, the toad, digs in to his bedroom and the snapping turtle sinks out of sight in the muddy stream bed.

Truly Melancholy

November days are truly melancholy, the "saddest of the year" to most of the busy little fellows of the wild bee tribes. Drones and workers still around now buzz off to bee heaven. The heavy queens chosen to carry on the race seek out protected nooks beneath stumps and rocks and immediately go into a dormant sleep. The hardy Mourning Cloak butterflies crawl into bark crevices, to awaken during the January thaw and dance above the melting snow.

This November will also be the twilight hour, in good earnest, for many hundreds of acres of beautiful countryside which are destined to fall prey to the gluttonous drag line monsters of the strip mine operations. The once lovely valley just beyond our lawns, now a desolate wasteland, is but typical of similar scenes across the land, wherever a trace of the "black gold" has found its price.

Shovels Wreak Havoc

I walked a short way down the valley in the November rain, forcing myself to view the havoc wrought by the belching shovels. The valley stream which once meandered happily through this bottomland and has been displaced for some hundreds of yards and is now a straight shale ditch running between great high walls of rubble. The mallards and kingfishers have given up in disgust and moved on elsewhere.

All the magnificent sycamores which had loved this valley, and had probably seen the Redskin pole, his dugout through the eddies, are now lying in a twisted, tangled mass of hewn holes and broken limbs. The swinging bridge, once a pleasant port of call on every hike by the creekside, now hangs in wretched abandonment above an ugly, empty gully. The muskrats moved out when the stream was first re-channeled and now the groundhogs are faced with certain eviction as the juggernaut advances.

Looks On Aghast

Perhaps this valley has served its purpose and must now be sacrificed on the altar of production so that Man can implement himself for further ruthless exploitation. The outdoorsman looks on aghast as the gasoline-powered ghoul devastates his fields of evening primrose, and the banks where the white trout lily bloomed and the wahoo hung out its scarlet pendants. The field where the knapweed sent out its buoyant argosies each fall is now a shambles, the rich top-soil buried beneath tons of worthless dross.

Somewhere in the darkest corner of Hades there must be a special torture room assigned to the misguided souls involved in this wholesale devastation. Here they will ride through eternity in huge drag-line buckets, close above the seething flame from endless beds of burning coal.

SASSY FRASS

NEW POTATO RECORD

HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—The state department of agriculture reports a new all-time record average yield per acre for potatoes in Pennsylvania this year. The new mark is 163 bushel an increase of five bushel over the previous record set last year. Estimates are for a crop this year of 17,930,000 bushel.

PLAIN GROVE

MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Women's Missionary Society and the Rainbow Circle of the U. P. church met at the home of Mrs. Sara Brown, Monday evening. Leaders for the meeting were Mrs. Evelyn McKissick and Mrs. Lucy Wallace. Miss Mary Shoaff led devotions.

The thank offering playlet was participated in by: Miss Mary Jo Brown, Mrs. Lucy Wallace and Miss Dorothy McKissick. The topic of the evening was "My Lord, He Calls Me" by Mrs. Clarabel Foster and Miss Ann Brown. "All My Life's I've Been Seeking" was the second topic by Mrs. Mildred Brown and Mrs. Mary Kate Sontag. "How Beautiful Upon the Mountains" was the topic of Miss Mary Shoaff with Miss Margaret Peebles presenting "An Epic of the Hills". Following business, lunch was served by the hostess and her aides.

PLAINGROVE NOTES

Mrs. Jean Johnson pleasantly entertained at her home on Wednesday evening, in honor of her father, Theodore Minor who celebrated his birthday. A seven o'clock dinner was served.

Wilson Pollock, a former resident of Plaingrove has been admitted to the Jameson Memorial Hospital.

A number from Plaingrove received the Seventh degree of the Grange at Columbus on Wednesday.

Miss Marjorie Aller of New Castle, spent the week end at the home of Miss Mae Shoaff.

Rev. J. C. Fulton and daughter, Ruth, of Portersville, were dinner guests of Rev. and Mrs. Fred Cochran, Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Claire Pollock motored to Sharon, Sunday, to visit their son James and family.

BERNARD P. KIELAR IS ACTIVE IN DRAMA

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—Bernard P. Kielar, son of Mrs. Mary Kielar, 56 High street, New Castle, Pa., is in charge of costuming for the University of Chicago student production of Alvin Koller's drama "Displaced Person", which will be given for the second performance, November 21, 22 and 23 at the university.

A veteran of World War II, Kielar is a third year student in the college of the University of Chicago.

W.C.T.U. Institute Held At Beaver Falls

Rev. R. B. McMillan Speaks At Afternoon Session Of Bi-County Institute

Members of the various W. C. T. U.'s of Lawrence and Beaver counties gathered Tuesday for a bi-county institute in the Central Methodist church, Beaver Falls.

Rev. R. W. McMillan, minister of the College Hill Reformed Presbyterian church, was the main speaker in the afternoon. In his talk on the subject "America's Sacred Cow" he compared the liquor business with the sacred cow of India. He stated that 40% of the traffic accidents in this country are due to alcohol.

Mrs. Amy Scripture, president of Beaver County W. C. T. U., presided at the afternoon session. Rev. Alton Miller, pastor of the host church, spoke on the theme "Thanksgiving." Mrs. T. E. Carson, state general secretary of the Loyal Temperance Legion, stated that one-fifth of the women in jail today are there on account of drunkenness. Mrs. Amanda George gave the offertory prayer.

The morning session, which was in charge of Lawrence county, opened at 10 o'clock. Mrs. A. B. Calhoun, vice-president of Beaver county W. C. T. U., introduced Mrs. F. J. Fox, president of Lawrence county W. C. T. U., who presided. "Safeguard the Nation" was the meetings theme. Using "Alone with God" as her topic, Mrs. Scott Munnell, president of the East Side union and spiritual life director, was devotional leader. Mrs. Clair Boyer, of Wayne union, discussed "Alcohol Education" while Mrs. Floyd Worrell, vice-president of Lawrence county W. C. T. U. spoke on "Temperance and Missions." Mrs. Scott Kirk, president of the East Brook union, discussed "Legislation." She stated Pennsylvania gained a victory in the local option vote this fall.

Mrs. Mary McReady, of Beaver county, offered the noontide prayer.

Ask School Nurses Help With Program

HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—(INS)—The state health department today called for 1500 school nurses to help administer the student health examination program.

Registered nurses may qualify by applying to county school superintendents for certificates, according to Secretary Norris W. Vaux. "School boards must employ school nurses as rapidly as they become available," Vaux said. "At the moment the problem is complicated by a nationwide shortage of nurses."

Physical checks for general health and conditions must be given students every other year under a $500,000 program outlined for the 1947-49 biennium.

Enthusiasm Shown By Lincoln Pupils In Red Cross Work

Boys and girls attending Lincoln-Garfield grade school on the South Side are focusing their attention these days on Red Cross work. Numerous projects are under way in the school which are assisting the gigantic task of the Red Cross at home and abroad.

Realizing that boys and girls in other parts of the world who live in countries that were devastated by the war, are not so fortunate as they in having warm comfortable homes and clothing, the Lincoln students are doing something about it.

Packing Kits
Kits furnished by the Red Cross are being packed by the school children to eventually go to a foreign country where they will be utilized by a boy or girl of perhaps the same age as the sender. The packs, which contain various educational, recreational and health necessities, when full total about $2.00 all of which is furnished by the sender. Students either bring money or new articles to pack in the kits.

A letter resembling the old "V-Mail" type jackets is included in the kit and replies are received from the one who has received the articles. Already, 12 of the kits have left Lincoln and 18 are in the process of being packed. The work is being supervised by Miss Stella McVay. In the Junior Red Cross work, the South Side school has responded 100 per cent. A scrap book has been made by grade 5-2 and will be sent to the Jameson Memorial hospital children's ward.

A quartet trained under the supervision of Miss Ann Thomas, composed of Tommy Eaggleson, Geraldine Wilson, Mary Lee Rodgers and Mattie Lee Lawson, students in the school, sang last evening at the Central Presbyterian church.

Three clubs are being sponsored in the school, a girls club by Miss Emma Maxwell; a boys club by Miss Helen Clarke and a small flies club by Martin Leonhardt.

During October, Lincoln sold $411.90 worth of savings stamps or a total of $595.50 worth since school opened in September. There were 119 pupils who bought stamps in October.

For part of each year 75 per cent of the sheep and half the beef cattle of the United States are supported on 728 million acres of range lands in 17 western states.

double that of the preceding five years and three that of the depression years, the planning board said.

"It is true these were years of war but the progress shown during Pennsylvania's war years was merely a continuation of the rise out of the valley of the depression," a spokesman asserted.

The 1941-45 production value was 69 per cent higher than the average during the 1925-29 "boom" years and 55 per cent greater than during the years of the first World War, according to the agency.

Both gold and iron rings were worn in early times by the Persians and the Hindus.

Past Ten Years Remarkable Epoch In State History

HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—(INS)—The state planning board today claimed the past ten years in Pennsylvania have been "the most remarkable epoch in the history of the commonwealth."

The board reported average annual value of the state's mining and manufacturing industries totaled $12,789,000,000, during the years 1941-45. The figure was double that of the preceding five years and three that of the depression years, the planning board said.

"It is true these were years of war but the progress shown during Pennsylvania's war years was merely a continuation of the rise out of the valley of the depression," a spokesman asserted.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

Christmas Party For Peggy With All Trimmings

New Jersey Child Slowly Losing Sight, Enjoys Special Yuletide Party

TITUSVILLE, N. J., Nov. 20.—(INS)—Peggy Bennett, five-year-old Titusville child who faces total blindness before Christmas, today enjoyed the fruits of a special pre-Yuletide party.

She was busy with a whole regiment of dolls, doll houses, toy washing machines and irons and kitchen sets—and even a toy record-player.

Greeted By Santa
She was greeted by Santa Claus in the person of Carl A. Gebhardt, who was commissioned by merchants, school teachers, children and AFL unions to preside.

Peggy, a blonde, smiling youngster, was allowed by doctors to stay only half an hour at her party. Then she went home to bed in her parent's home at Newton—under orders to rest in order to preserve her failing sight.

Baptist Association To Convene At Erie

District No. 1 Auxiliary of the Union Baptist association will convene from November 28 to 30, at the Shiloh Baptist church, Erie. Rev. J. L. McFarland, pastor of the Second Baptist church, this city, was elected president of the association which took place in July at Pittsburgh. The first meeting of this district was held in August at the Second Baptist church.

Churches from Farrell, Midland, Grove City, Titusville, Sanford and New Castle will be represented at the meeting in Erie. Rev. D. A. Terry is pastor of the host congregation. A chartered bus will leave the Second Baptist church Sunday morning, November 30, at 8 o'clock for Erie.

HANGS SELF

CAMDEN, N. J., Nov. 20.—(INS)—Anthony Gestite, 44, a Camden mechanical engineer, hanged himself, police said, after beating his wife with a baseball bat.

Police found Gestite's body in the cellar of his Fairview home. The wife, Helen, 38, was taken to a hospital with serious head injuries.

The couple's 18-year-old daughter Dorothy said her mother told her that Gestite struck her while she was preparing breakfasts.

Congressman Says Foreign 'Spies' At Oak Ridge Plant

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Rep. Cannon (D) Mo., declared today that there were Russian and other allied and enemy "spies" at the Oak Ridge atomic project during the war.

Cannon mentioned Germany, Japan, Italy and England as other nations who had agents at the birthplace of the atomic bomb.

The wartime chairman of the house appropriations committee said his information came from "the men in charge of the atomic bomb project at Oak Ridge."

The congressman revealed the hitherto unknown secret of the war in an interview in which he said that the agents were "disguised as workers."

Cannon revealed early this year that spies were discovered at the highly secret project during the war, but at the time he declined to reveal the names of the countries they represented.

Canon was informed about the spies during a trip to Oak Ridge in May 1945 with several other members of his committee. Several months before the bomb was dropped on Hiroshima.

Semi-Formal Dance Planned By Seniors

Senior class of the New Castle high school is planning its annual semi-formal dance at The Cathedral on Saturday, December 6 from 9 to 12 p. m. when a nationally known band will be present to play.

In charge of the program is Mariel Hamilton with Ed Davies and Jim Berkstreuer in charge of the publicity. Other committees will be named later.

W. C. T. U. AND L. T. L.

Harlansburg W. C. T. U.

Members of the Harlansburg W. C. T. U. and their families were pleasantly entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Allison, Thursday evening, Nov. 13.

Miss Mary Copper, the leader, had charge of the following program.

Scripture was read by the leader followed by a duet by Doris and Carolyn McElwain. Prayer, Mrs. Lloyd Kildoo, followed by a song by the group.

Miss Copper then introduced the guest speaker of the evening, Rev. Leichter, pastor of the Harlansburg Baptist church, who gave an excellent talk on "Building With God." He spoke of building lives in relationship with God in relation to man. In our building, he said, we fail to grasp the significance of the cornerstone. We must have the artist's conception of the finished building, which is our bodies. The program closed with a song and prayer.

Announcement was made that Rev. P. C. Johannides of New Castle is teaching Bible school in Harlansburg, with a large enrollment. This is sponsored by the union. The president announced that the union had achieved the standard of excellency and also received certificates for being an honor and a certificate for being a fruitful union. The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. J. G. McKissick. Refreshments were served to 60 members and guests.

GARDENER SUICIDES

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 20.—(INS)—The coroner's office today listed as suicide the death of L. Dewey McKelvey, 45, a gardener of suburban Edgeworth, whose body was found at his home yesterday with a rifle wound in the head.

Pittsburgh Officer, Five Boys Narrowly Escape Falling Walls

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 20.—(INS)—A Pittsburgh motorcycle patrolman and five unidentified boys counted themselves among the more fortunate today.

The five boys were playing in an abandoned, two-story service station. The policeman, Edward Broadrick, told them to leave, warning them the building had been condemned six months ago. They left and he followed. Officer Broadrick heard debris falling and jumped out of the way. The entire building collapsed. The officer was uninjured, but his motorcycle was damaged by the falling masonry.

Old recluses in Australia are known as "hatters."

County Home Not Forgotten During Holiday Season

Spiritual Ministry Along With Entertaining Program Brightens Residents' Lives

Residents of Lawrence County Home are looking forward to the annual Thanksgiving program which will be presented for them next Tuesday evening, when a group of prominent church women of the city working with the chaplain of the home will provide entertainment and refreshments for the men and women.

The ladies, Mrs. Joel S. McKee of First Presbyterian church, Mrs. Jesse N. Kerr of First Methodist, Mrs. David Nesbit of First Baptist, Mrs. W. H. Hanna of Second U. P., Mrs. Joseph MacKenzie of the Primitive Methodist, and Mrs. F. P. Sulmonetti of Christ Methodist, along with Chaplain Rev. Sulmonetti, are planning one of the most outstanding Thanksgiving programs of the year.

Tuesday evening the home residents heard a gospel team from Westminster college, composed of Hazel Potter, leader; Betty Hamilton, devotional leader; Harold Thomas, pre-ministerial student; James Hodge and Kenneth Stewart, who presented an excellent gospel program in conjunction with the weekly worship services directed by the chaplain each Tuesday evening.

Weekly services have been in progress at the home for the past seven years and have been directed continuously by Rev. F. P. Sulmonetti, who has been assisted by the full staff of his evangelistic party, composed of Mrs. Sulmonetti, co-director, and their two children, Earl, the violinist, and Ethna, the sweet gospel singer. Volunteer services of the ministers of the city to the home did not work out too well and Rev. Sulmonetti was appointed as paid chaplain to carry on the important work that needed to be done at the County Home. Commendation has come from all sources, including the present superintendent and wife, Mr. and Mrs. S. Cutler, as to the efficiency of the work done there.

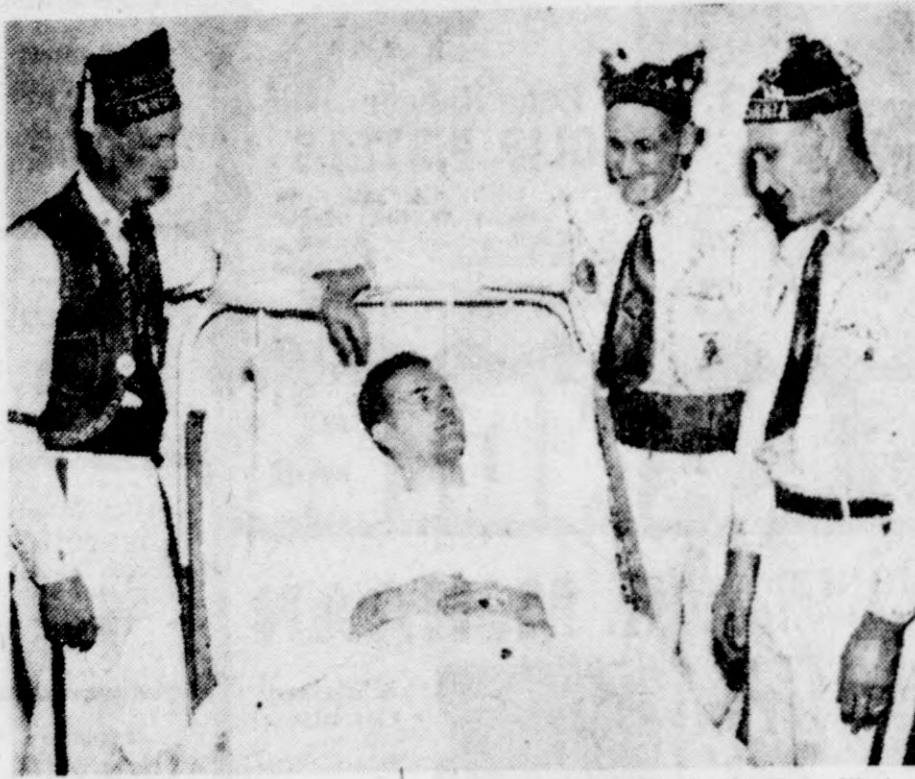

Maj. Gen. Meyers Eager To Testify

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Maj. Gen. Bennett Meyers said he is eager to give a "point-by-point" answer today to Senate testimony regarding his wartime financial activities which may result in federal prosecution for alleged tax evasion.

The retired officer was expected to be called before the Ferguson War Investigating Subcommittee today after Attorney General Clark announced in Indianapolis that the Justice Department will seek an indictment against Meyers when the inquiry ends.

The Cooties Haven't Forgotten

The patient in this picture is William McKnight of New Castle who was operated upon recently in Deshon Veterans' hospital near Butler. The Cooties in the picture are, left, George Hunt, past commander of the local Cooties. On the other side of the bed, George Christoph, hospital aid director for this area and Norman Minner, an active member of the Cooties.

It is going to be a White Christmas for a lot of veterans this year, but the white will be that of the hospital wards. The war isn't over for thousands of the lads who went all out in World Wars One and Two, and for all too many of them, Christmas will be spent in a hospital bed.

There is one military organization that hasn't forgotten what it means to spend Christmas in service or a hospital. The outfit is the Military Order of Cooties. Through the Cooties in this area, Christmas Day in the Deshon Hospital near Butler will be brighter than it might otherwise have been.

Birds And Animals At Gaston Park Storing Food For Winter; Groundhogs Fatten Up

At Gaston Park, Owen Fox, city forester, notices that the birds are beginning to frequent the feeding stations. The cardinals have put in an appearance.

The fox squirrels and blue jays are at swords' point. Blue jays are gathering up acorns and jamming them into large cracks in the bark of swamp oaks; then the squirrels come along to take the acorns out of the bark to put into their storehouse. The scrap soon begins between these adversaries; with the sharp screaming of the jays added to the chattering of the squirrels, they set up quite a "racket".

Owen says the blue jays seem to have a "chip on their shoulder" as they also dislike another kind of squirrel, the diminutive chipmunk that gathers quite a lot of acorns, thus beating out the blue jays of many of the coveted nuts. The chipmunks occasionally dart in and out and grab a few kernels of corn at the feeding station, and the fox squirrels will chase the little fellows away for about 15 feet, only to soon return again and risk the ire of the larger squirrels.

The groundhogs seem to be making their last round-up and have been eating themselves fat on acorns, until their stomachs drag, making tracks on the ground as they travel along. These animals come out about noon, making their trips shorter each day, until the time when we have a heavy freeze, they will hole up and hibernate for the winter. Mr. Fox states that acorns are their chief food just now, and when the acorns are frozen it is time for them to get into their winter home.

Legion Band To Have Rehearsal

Announcement was made today by Commander Joe Solomon of the Perry S. Gaston Post, American Legion, that a rehearsal meeting of the crack new Perry S. Gaston band would be held Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Legion home.

The band, which made its first appearance in the Armistice Day parade last week, made quite a hit with its snappy playing, and promises to give the post an organization which they may well be proud of.

Washington

Doubt U. S. Will Assume All Cost

Question Whether U. S. Will Take Over British Occupation Costs

STASSEN APPEARS TO BE POPULAR

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Prospects are that Congress will approve without a prolonged fight the 597 million dollars asked by Secretary of State George C. Marshall for stop-gap aid to France, Italy and Austria.

The additional 500 millions for occupied areas may also be voted, although there probably will be some argument on this issue.

One doubtful point is whether Congress will go along with taking over from the British the full cost of German occupation in the United States and British zones.

Another sharp controversy is expected over the proposal of the Herter committee in the House to set up a new government corporation to administer foreign aid.

Marshall is opposed to this idea. Republican leaders in Congress, like House Speaker Joseph W. Martin Jr., and Senate Foreign Relations Chairman Arthur H. Vandenberg, are supporting it.

A compromise may be worked out, but signs point to a conflict that may delay action until the next session of Congress.

They Like Stassen
Republican leaders, with the possible exception of Thomas E. Dewey, like Harold E. Stassen in almost any other role but that of GOP presidential nominee.

Stassen figures he has 100 Upper Mississippi valley delegates lined up for the Philadelphia convention next year, and observers say it may be so. But this is where the Stassen bandwagon bogs down. Privately, Stassen will admit as much.

However, Senator Robert A. Taft (R), Ohio, the only other avowed candidate; Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg (R), Michigan, Martin and a score of other top-notch Republicans entertain a deep liking and respect for the former Minnesota governor.

They are taking with the proverbial grain of salt Stassen's repeated protests that he will not consider the vice presidential nomination. Observers say that if the former governor goes down fighting he may reconsider and accept second place on a ticket headed by Taft—if the Ohioan gets the nod.

Taft has appeared twice on speaking platforms with Stassen. If he is nominated he can be reasonably sure of naming his own running mate.

Fowl Mess
When poultryless Thursdays were dropped from President Truman's food conservation campaign, an end was called to one of the bitterest fights on any phase of the food-saving drive.

It appears that in the long run, Food Conservation Chief Charles Luckman and Secretary of Agriculture Clinton Anderson got around to seeing eye-to-eye with the poultrymen.

However, before they did, there were a lot of undercover negotiations going on in Washington for dropping the special day. Most of these talks involved the poultry branch of the Agriculture department.

The industry actually lined up the poultry branch behind its argument during the first week of the meatless, poultryless and eggless day program.

While Anderson's poultry experts were working to end the program, the secretary and his aides (one of whom suggested the plan) were fighting to keep it in-effect.

Things got so bad that Luckman refused to take any action on poultryless Thursday without the written endorsement of both Anderson and the Agriculture department poultry branch.

Will Emphasize American Form Of Government

HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—(INS)—The basic worth of the American form of government will be emphasized to Pennsylvania students to offset foreign ideologies under a new educational policy being drafted by the state department of public instruction.

An advisory committee on education, representing schools and colleges, outlined procedure during a meeting at Harrisburg with Superintendent of Public Instruction Francis B. Haas.

The general assembly ordered instruction revamped to give students an appreciation of hard work and the free enterprise system.

Modernization Effort

The department had undertaken modernization of teaching methods and courses before the act was passed during the 1947 session, but reshaped its project during the conference to embrace the legislative plan.

The democracy training plan probably will provide for instruction in the historical advance of freedom of the press, speech, religion and other guarantees provided under the American constitution, according to Director of Instruction Paul L. Cressman.

"The object is to show students that these privileges were not as prevalent as wind and rain, but that they were gained only after long struggles and toil," he explained.

The work will be financed with a $100,000 appropriation approved by Gov. James H. Duff.

Cressman said he expected part of the new instruction outline to be completed by next autumn. A battery of 15,000 teachers throughout the state were at work helping to alter courses and improve scholastic standards, he pointed out.

Around Hollywood

By JOHN TODD

International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Husky Glenn Langan is eager today to dispute the theory that lightning never strikes twice in the same place.

Glenn has just been hit again by a bolt in the spot where it hurts the most—the pocketbook.

Glenn Is Peever

In other words, Glenn has been notified by 20th Century-Fox for the second consecutive year that his annual lay-off will be in effect over the Christmas holiday season. He got it Monday as he completed his role in "The Ballad of Furnace Creek."

Said Glenn:

"Can you imagine such gosh darn luck? Last year, effective November 13, I got a 12 week lay-off."

"Now, effective November 17, I get a nine-week lay-off. And Christmas is just around the corner."

Has Unusual Bar

M-G-M's lovely Angela Lansbury has a worry, too, but it's of quite a different nature. It happens that the home Angela recently purchased has a most unusual bar. It's off the living room, but concealed by a section of the wall which goes up or down when you push a button.

Angela, now playing a newspaper publisher in "State of the Union," took a few minutes time out at luncheon to explain it to me.

"It's the most intriguing arrangement in the world," she said. "The eyes of my guests almost pop out when the wall starts to move."

"But, I'm always afraid that someone is going to get trapped in it. I did once myself, but I knew the way and climbed out through a little window in the cellar."

Bette Can Wait

Bette Davis, the two time academy award winner, isn't one of the stars waiting with bated breath to do a stage play.

In the midst of Warner's "Winter Meeting," her first picture since the birth of her beautiful daughter, Bette said she might do a play "if exactly the right one came along."

"To tell you the truth, I don't see much sense of going to New York for a play—except under the most exceptional circumstances."

It would take you away from home and family and leave you living in a hotel. I can't see it."

Loves His Wife

Cornel Wilde, held in Hollywood by his role in "The Walls of Jerico" for Darryl Zanuck, has just got heck from his business manager for spending $136 in a week on telephone calls to his wife, Patricia Knight, in New York for conferences on a play. If a movie star would rather talk to his wife than eat, more power to him, I say!

Local Physician To Attend Conference

Dr. Wilbur E. Flannery, 1511 Highland avenue, local physician, departed last evening for Philadelphia, where he will attend the all-day session of the Middle Atlantic States Regional Conference on Medical Service.

The meeting will be held in the auditorium of the Philadelphia County Medical Society.

Dr. Flannery, as a member of the Pennsylvania Medical Society, will take part in the discussions of medical services as related to a community; discussion on medical care of veterans; and will hear a paper of the present status of the United Mine Workers health and welfare funds; and the county blood bank.

On Friday, November 21, Dr. Flannery will attend an executive committee meeting in New York City, of the class of 1929 of Dartmouth College, which is being held in the Dartmouth College club.

Dr. Flannery is accompanied by Mrs. Flannery.

State Housing Board Restored

HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Gov. James H. Duff Wednesday restored the State Housing Board, defunct since June 16, by reappointing its full membership.

Beginning new terms were Arthur C. Kaufmann, Ardmore; J. E. Burns, Oil City; Owen B. Hanon, (4815 Liberty Ave.) Pittsburgh; Ritchie Lawrie, Jr., Harrisburg; and Henry C. Spencer, Carbondale, R. D. 1.

Their appointments were subject to Senate confirmation. If approved, the members will be given staggered terms undetermined at the present time, according to a spokesman of the governor's office.

Their initial terms expired at the close of the 1947 legislative session.

The appointees will be the policy makers for the limited housing research program under a $25,000 appropriation granted this year. They will also help establish minimum building standards for veterans housing projects.

Plan Benefit Performance For SOS Drive

Special Program To Aid Campaign To Be Presented Saturday Morning

SOS or Supplies for Overseas Survivors campaign will benefit from a motion picture as hero of the wild west, Tim Holt runs rampant over the lawless in an exciting western picture, "Riding the Wind," at the Penn theater Saturday morning. The picture is for the young people of the community and will be accompanied by three cartoons, a Popeye comic, Puppington and a Noveltoon.

SOS will benefit in that each child attending will gain admission by turning in a can of food or milk at the door. The type of can to be used will be any food put up in a number 2½ can. The alternative will be one large can of milk or two small cans of milk or two cans of baby food.

The movie will start at 10 a. m. sharp and the doors will not open before 9:30. There will be one showing and the can goods received will be turned over to the campaign Supplies for Overseas Survivors.

Glen Bell manager of the Penn theater, where the picture will be shown, stated that the projectionist and employees of the theater will donate their time to the cause.

A. A. Webb, chairman of the campaign, said that the object of the collection is to aid the 1,500,000 Jewish people remaining in Europe. None of these people are adequately clothed or fed and with winter rapidly approaching they are destined to starvation or freezing. Every bit of clothing or food that we Americans can send will aid materially in seeing these people through the winter.

SMALLER APPLE CROP
HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—The state department of agriculture reports that the estimated apple crop for Pennsylvania had declined 116,000 bushel during October to 6,612,000 bushel as the result of early freezes and dry weather. A greater loss was averted by early picking.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Rep. Knutson (R) Minn., hinted that an attempt may be made in congress to nullify the world-wide trade agreement announced by the state department for reducing tariffs.

Knutson, chairman of the house ways and means committee which has jurisdiction over tariff legislation, complained that the United States is now being asked to compete "on a practically free trade basis" with lowering living standards and wages elsewhere in the world. He declared:

"Not content with lowering hundreds of rates of duty, the state department has attempted to tie the hands of congress on rates of duty which were not cut by binding them so that we will have to go through the unpleasant procedure of abrogating agreements before we can again protect American agriculture and industry from the blighting invasion of low age scale competitive products."

NEW BUREAU
HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Insurance Commissioner James F. Malone, Jr., today announced the establishment of a regulation bureau to approve fire and casualty rates in line with federal requirements.

State requirements with congressional requirements by January 1, 1948, was authorized by the General Assembly during the 1947 session to sidestep federal control of insurance.

George B. Elliott, chief compensation actuary since 1939, was named director of the new bureau.

INDIANA WOMAN KILLED BY TRUCK

INDIANA, Pa., Nov. 20.—(INS)—Mrs. Laura Lockard, 66, of Indiana, died Wednesday of injuries and shock suffered when she was struck by a truck while crossing a street.

Police held Angello Abbati, 26, of Indiana, driver of the truck. They said he was driving without a license, and had four persons in the truck's cab at the time of the accident.

Seventh Ward

Christmas Lighting For Liberty Street

Ward Civic Club Plans Yule Lighting Over New Year's; Soliciting For Funds

At the meeting of the Seventh Ward Civic Club on Tuesday, the Christmas spirit prevailed, and found all present unanimously in favor of Christmas lights for Liberty street.

Manning Weller presided at the meeting, and a motion in favor of the project was carried unanimously.

The committee in charge of installation and finance headed by Harry Elder, reported progress. Progress was also reported by the decorations committee headed by Ray Horschler.

A program committee under the leadership of Rev. J. L. Pett and Rev. Howard A. Redmond, was appointed. All signs point to a big evening, when the lights are turned on Friday, December 5.

Of course, lighting Liberty street from December 5 through New Year's will cost some money. The project is of, for, and by the community, and the Civic Club feels positive that the money will be forthcoming.

Most of the business establishments have already contributed. Solicitations will be made, and everyone will have an opportunity to help assure us a public display during the Christmas season.

Test Being Made On Law On Investments In Realty By Insurance Companies

OTHER NEWS OF
STATE AFFAIRS

HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Hope runs high in the state justice department that the new law permitting insurance companies to invest in real estate will survive a constitutional test before the supreme court. Officials have crossed their fingers while awaiting a ruling on acts extending virtually unlimited taxing powers to local governments and establishing a community property system. The insurance law was challenged by the New York Life Insurance company allegedly planning to invest $50,000,000 in home or commercial building in Pennsylvania. The firm wanted to be sure that its investments could not be escheated by the commonwealth because of flaws in the law. The case was based on the company's charges that real estate investments were not proper or necessary to insurance firms' well being. It had been ruled under an act of 1945 that investments in redevelopment projects were proper and necessary. Greater investment latitude was granted by lawmakers during the 1947 session.

The test of the investment legislation was initiated as a safeguard. The court took original jurisdiction of the other measures to settle specific legal tangles. A battery of some of the state's most brilliant attorneys thronged the court in Philadelphia last week when argument was held. Pessimism for the revenue raising law stemmed largely from Chief Justice George W. Moxley's outburst condemning the measure as a possible promoter of communism. There has long been skepticism among top lawyers that the community property law, which makes husbands and wives joint owners of the property, would hold up since it runs counter to the commonwealth's history long conception of family rights.

The Pennsylvania National Guard grapevine has it that Adjutant General Frank A. Weber exerted a lot of pressure for the plan to reorganize the PNG top command in hopes of paving the way for a major generalship. Weber now has the rank of brigadier general conferred by the state to place him on equal footing with Brig. Gen. Daniel B. Strickler, 28th infantry division commander, and Brig. Gen. Charles C. Curtis, head of the 51st anti-aircraft artillery brigade. Coupled with Weber's alleged yearning for another star was an awkward situation under the present table of organization that authorized a major generalship for Strickler and restricted Curtis, the guard's senior officer, to his present rank because of his unit's organizational outline. PNG officials suggested to Maj. Gen. Kenneth F. Cramer, head of the Federal National Guard Bureau, that a major general be authorized for command. Such an arrangement would open a new general officer post in the brigade. The commonwealth's peacetime force will have ultimately 40,000 officers and men which would be directed in two separate units rather than under one overall commander under the recommendation.

Minority House Leader Hiram G. Andrews has accused the joint state government commission of beginning its 1947-49 biennial operations with a tendency to "glorify the administration". The legislative fact-finding group, working on 20 assignments aimed at improving government functions, is headed by Sen. Weldon B. Heyburn (R) Delaware.

BUCKWHEAT ESTIMATE

HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—The state department of agriculture reports that buckwheat estimates in Pennsylvania this year are for a crop of 1,860,000 bushels, 260,000 less than on October 1, as a result of damage from early freezing.

MILLBURN

Members of Millburn grange who attended the meetings of the National Grange at Columbus, O., last week and took the seventh degree were Mr. and Mrs. James Burns, Mildred and Martha Cummings, Harry Metzgar and Stephen Lukacs. Election of officers at the grange meeting on Thursday evening was postponed on account of the absence of these and other members. The next grange meeting will be held on Friday evening, November 29.

Lyle Cummings, who six months previously had been severely injured when he was pinned under his tractor when it overturned is again a patient in Mercer hospital having caught his hand in a corn husker on November 13. No bones are broken and he hopes to be able to come home soon.

The United Presbyterian manse, of Mercer, was the scene of a quiet wedding at 2:30 p.m. on Saturday when Alfreda Ramsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Ramsey, was united in marriage to Clarence McCracken, son of Mr. and Mrs. Meade McCracken of Volant, R. D., with Rev. Ferdinand Vogan, the bride's pastor, officiating. The bride was charming in a street dress of aqua gabardine with brown accessories. She was attended by her sister, Shirley, who wore brown gabardine with light brown accessories. Wiley Welton was the groom's attendant. Members of the immediate families witnessed the exchange of vows. After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. McCracken will be at the home of the groom's parents until an apartment which they have rented in New Wilmington is vacant.

The annual hunt supper of the Indian Run district was held at the dining room in White Chapel church on Friday evening. The losers who were captained by Albert Flannery, banqueted the winners, captained by Paul Heckathorne.

Mrs. Irwin Kelley, nee Margaret McCarny, of Pittsburgh, whose death occurred on Sunday was buried at Leesburg on Wednesday.

A. D. Ramsey and Fred Metzgar are in the big woods hunting this week. J. R. Patterson, Elmer Humphrey and Dickson Stewart spent Monday at their camp at Crosby. They report seeing a bear but it was evidently under size.

Christina Fink, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Fink, is ill at her home.

L. B. Anderson is showing steady improvement, being able to sit up a little every day. Rev. Rhodes of Oakdale, Kentucky, who has been north collecting a truck load of produce for the school of which he is business manager and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lockyer of the Sharon road were callers at the Anderson home during the week.

J. H. Armstrong attended the banquet of Pennsylvania railroad veteran employees at New Castle last week. Mrs. Armstrong visited her niece, Miss Eva Lightner that day. Clyde Lutton and Mrs. Maude Dorfield of Greenville, cousins of Mrs. Armstrong were recent callers in her home.

Dr. and Mrs. O. C. Campbell of Ford City visited the latter's sister, Mrs. L. E. Stewart and family on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Elder and daughter, Martha Grace of Cool Spring were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Anderson and family.

Rev. Shingledecker of Mercer and Mrs. Hermandorfer called on

Mrs. Joseph Robinson and family during the week. Mr. and Mrs. Austin Hoagland visited their mother recently. Mrs. Fred Robinson and her mother, Mrs. Mirelda Rodawalt, called in the Louis Rodawalt home recently. Mrs. Rodawalt has concluded a visit with her daughter and after spending some time with other members of her family will go to Scrubdale, Pa., to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Paul Dye and family.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Weigle of Harlansburg called in the Patterson home recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bunce of Cooperstown were Saturday guests of Mrs. Emma Bougher.

Mr. and Mrs. George Masters drove to Pittsburgh on Sunday with their daughter, Geraldine, who took the transcontinental bus for Miami, Fla., where she expects to spend her vacation with friends. Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hume were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Coulter of Grove City on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Latshaw visited relatives in Parkers Landing on Sunday evening.

Recent guests in the Harvey Williams home were Mrs. Lena Knauff and son Arthur, Mrs. Baseler and son Earl, and Mrs. Jim Gregg of Grove City.

Mrs. J. J. Sullivan, a former resident, is visiting Mrs. J. R. Patterson this week.

Mary Lee Taylor's
Pumpkin PieBroadcast:
November 22, 1947

1/4 cup brown sugar 1/4 teaspoon cloves
1 tablespoon flour 1 1/2 cups cooked or
1 teaspoon salt 1 1/2 cups canned pumpkin
1 teaspoon cinnamon 1/2 cup fat milk
1 egg slightly beaten
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon ginger 2 tablespoons dark molasses

Turn on oven; set at very hot (450° F.). Mix together brown sugar, flour, salt, cinnamon, nutmeg, ginger and cloves. Add remaining ingredients; stir until smooth. Pour into deep 9-in. pie pan lined with unbaked pastry. Bake 15 min., then reduce heat to slow (325° F.) and bake 40 min., or until firm.

Note: 2 1/4 teas. pumpkin pie spice can replace the above spices.

For Sweet Potato Pie, substitute for the pumpkin freshly cooked or canned sweet potatoes or yams, put through a sieve; reduce brown sugar to 1/2 cup, omit molasses and add 2 tablesps. melted butter or margarine.

For Squash Pie, follow recipe for Pumpkin Pie, substituting cooked winter squash, thoroughly mashed, for the pumpkin.

Medical Education Program In State Gets Attention

One Of Every Twelve Doctors In State Enrolls For Program
To Keep Up To Times

HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—(INS)—One of every twelve Pennsylvania doctors has been enrolled in what the Pennsylvania State Medical Society labeled "the largest medical education program for practicing physicians ever attempted."

Dr. Charles W. Smith, of Harrisburg, chairman of the Graduate Education Committee, said 341 practitioners were studying refresher courses in basic medicine, new procedures and techniques one day each week at six instruction centers.

Keep Up To Times
"This program has proved that the general practitioner, especially the typical country doctor, seeks to keep himself abreast of the latest progress in medicine," Smith asserted. "In no other way can the rural doctor learn so much for so little outlay of time and expense."

He pointed out that the Medical Society was prepared to open additional teaching centers, employ more instructors if the demand warranted.

Instruction centers have been opened at Allentown, Harrisburg, Johnstown, Oil City, Wilkes-Barre and Williamsport.

Col. Kennedy In Veterans Hospital

Local friends will be interested in knowing that Col. John D. Kennedy, of Washington, D. C., is recovering from the effects of an operation he recently underwent in the Walter Reed General Hospital.

After leaving the hospital, Col. Kennedy plans to retire to an inactive status, and will take his terminal leave.

Mr. Kennedy, former cashier of the Peoples Bank of New Castle, and a veteran of World War One, was one of the first men to be called into service at the outbreak of the war, being assigned to duty in the U. S. Army Finance Office at Washington, D. C., where he rose to be assistant chief.

Young Hunter Is Shot In Accident

'Empty' Gun Discharges As Hunter Reaches For It In Back Seat Of Auto

John Murawski, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Murawski, of 213 West Madison avenue, was seriously injured when a rifle was accidentally discharged while on a hunting trip to West Pittsburgh, Wednesday at 12:15 p. m.

According to the report, young Murawski was accompanied by two friends, Len Valley and Bill Evanowski. The trio spied a squirrel on a side road towards West Pittsburgh and decided to hunt it down.

Valley and Evanowski had already started on foot, after parking the car, and Murawski reached in the back seat of the car for the other rifle, which the boys had checked and supposedly was empty. As Murawski grabbed the gun, it discharged, the bullet striking him in the right hip.

The youth is in the New Castle Hospital, where he is slightly improved today. Although not critical, Murawski is seriously injured.

Cancer Dangers Told Kiwanians

Dr. J. Wesley Post Discusses Facts Concerning Cancer And Its Treatment

In a frank talk Wednesday noon, New Castle Kiwanis club were told of the dangers of cancer, which brings death to one in every six persons in this country, and of methods of treatment. The talk was given at the weekly meeting of the club by Kiwanian Dr. J. Wesley Post.

Periodic examination, particularly by those who have reached middle age in life, or beyond, was urged as one of the best methods of discovery, and prompt treatment was also urged.

People should be concerned about sores upon the body which do not respond to treatment, persistent indigestion, or abnormal growths about the body, Dr. Post told the Kiwanians.

There are only three recognized forms of treatment, namely, X-ray, radium and surgery.

If people were as concerned about their health as they are about their automobiles, their watches, and other personal property, discovery would be made sooner. People take their cars for an examination twice a year, but neglect their own health, which is far more important, he stated.

He advised his audience to make use of the Cancer Center here for advice and stated that after the first of the year, a Cancer Detection Center would be opened here, available to all, whether able to pay for its services or not.

At the close of his talk, there was a question period, and additional information was given by Dr. Lumen Popp, Dr. A. G. Reynolds and Dr. S. P. Zaremba, following which a short picture on the subject was shown.

PERMITS TO BUILD

City of New Castle issued construction permits today to Harry W. Boyd, 1060 Butler Avenue, for a block garage to cost $500, and to Mike Chuckovitch, 205 East Madison Avenue, for a frame and aluminum garage at a cost of $1,000.

Young Farmers To Gather On Friday

Farm Management And Keeping Of Records Will Be Discussed By Penn State Specialist

Another meeting for young farmers of Lawrence County and any others interested in farm management problems, has been arranged for Friday evening at 8:15 o'clock in the County House here by the Lawrence County Agricultural Extension Association.

The value of keeping farm records so as to check one's progress in the farming industry, along with other farm management problems will be discussed by Monroe J. Armes, farm management extension specialist of Penn State College.

There will be a question period at the close of Mr. Armes talk.

MOTHER AND FOUR CHILDREN VICTIMS OF RAGING FIRE

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Nov. 19. (INS) — The Mt. Pleasant Fire

Department reported Wednesday that Mrs. John Crosby and four of her children were burned to death when a fire of undetermined origin destroyed their apartment in the downtown area of Mt. Pleasant.

FOUR ARABS ARE REPORTED SLAIN

JERUSALEM, Nov. 20. (INS) — Four Arabs were slain and another seriously wounded in a shooting affray today at Jerusalem by gunmen believed to be members of the Jewish Stern gang.

The incident is believed to be Sternist reprisal for last week's military raid on a Jewish underground force north of Tel Aviv.

Mrs. E. C. Lewis, of Oil City, was the guest Wednesday of her sister, Mrs. Ward S. Hamaker, and of Miss Janet N. Kissinger, of 24 East North street. Mrs. Lewis was accompanied by her grandson, Ernest Lewis.

William C. Cameron, Beckford street, and Paul S. McConahy, Morton street, are attending the national bottlers' convention in Atlantic City, where they are registered at the Marlboro-Blenheim.

Navy Entrance Standards Lower Youths Reminded

Chief Machinist's Mate S. E. Bond of the New Castle navy recruiting station today reminded youths of the city that physical standards for entrance into the naval service have been modified. Applicants may be 17 to 30 years of age, have 20-20 vision in each eye correctable to 20-20 with glasses, and lack of color perception under the new requirements is no longer cause for rejection. Teeth requirements have also been changed and former applicants turned down for their dental defects can now be accepted. Height has also been modified, with the minimum now 60 inches and maximum 78. Young men earnestly in search of a career in the U. S. navy are urged to again see their recruiting chief if they desire entrance. Reasons for former rejection may no longer prohibit your joining.

War-Mongering Charges Renewed By Moscow Paper

MOSCOW, Nov. 20.—(INS)—The Moscow publication "Literary Gazette" renewed its charges of war-mongering by American public figures today and demanded that a number be brought to trial as "incendiaries." Those named by the publication included former Ambassador William C. Bullitt, Lewis H. Brown, chairman of the board of the Johns-Manville Corp., Admiral Raymond F. Spruance, Rear Admiral Ellis M. Zacharias and Rep. Clarence Cannon of Missouri. The publication's headline read: "We Demand the Criminal Trial of These Incendiaries of War." It was the Gazette which not long ago accused President Truman of being a war-monger. It leveled a similar charge against President Erique Gaspar Dutra of Brazil, for which reason Brazil severed diplomatic relations with Soviet Russia.

Extradition Case Under Advisement

Pittsburgh Carpenter, Ohio Prison Escapee In 1922, Upheld By Court

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 20.—(INS)—The state superior court today had under advisement the appeal of District Attorney Artemas C. Leslie from a ruling that a Pittsburgh carpenter should not be returned to Ohio to complete sentence in a prison from which he escaped 25 years ago. Judge Thomas H. Marshall previously had ruled that William H. Buckhorn, who had lived an exemplary life in Pittsburgh, had paid his debt to society. He escaped from an Ohio prison in 1922 after serving seven and a half months of a one-to-seven year sentence for stealing brass. The court adjourned yesterday until March 1, when it will convene in Scranton.

Blame Dead Pilot For Fatal Crash

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—(INS)—The Civil Aeronautics Board ruled Wednesday that the crash of a four-engine airliner last June near Leesburg, Va., which killed 50 persons, was caused primarily by poor pilot judgment in flying too low.

The board said, however, that "faulty clearance" given by the CAA Airway Traffic Control at Arcola, Va., was "a contributing cause" to the crash of the DC-4, which was operated by Capital Airlines.

The airliner was en route from Pittsburgh to Washington on June 13 when it struck a Blue Ridge mountain top at an altitude of about 1,400 feet near the Virginia-West Virginia state line.

During 1945 the United States produced 95,500,000 tons of steel.

Ann Preston (1813-72) was an American physician and educator, born in West Grove, Tenn., daughter of Amos Preston, a Quaker. She entered the Woman's Medical College of Philadelphia in 1850, when that institution was opened, graduating in 1852. Here she was professor of physiology and hygiene from 1854 and dean from 1866. She also wrote juvenile literature, "Cousin Ann's Stories for Children".

During the time of storing surplus honey, a hive or colony of bees has its maximum population, which roughly estimated, averages between 50,000 and 75,000 workers, one queen, and a few hundred to a thousand drones, the lot weighing from 10 to 15 pounds.

Harlansburg Class Will Present Play

'Let 'Er Go Gallagher' Will Be Given Friday Night By Senior Class At Grange Hall

"Let 'Er Go Gallagher," a new comedy, to be presented by the senior class of Harlansburg high school at the Liberty grange hall on Friday, Nov. 21, at 8 p. m., is a merry conflict between two families of Ozark mountain folk, the Calhouns and the Snoods.

These are gay, happy people who live in this romantic setting. If you will cast aside your superficial conventions and suspicions, they will extend to you most sincere hospitality. They will teach you the meaning of spring with its joy and laughter.

It is only when the complicated ideas of the outside world disturbs them that they become confused. And even this they treat with humorous contempt. This is exactly what happened to the Calhouns and the Snoods when modern pension plans came to the Ozarks.

New State Taxes Net $36,000,000 In First Five Months

HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—Pennsylvania's new taxes, estimated to bring in more than $36,000,000 in the first five months of the fiscal period, showed receipts Tuesday of $35,629,000 from June 1 to October 1.

Topping the list of commonwealth revenue raisers was the four-cent package tax on cigarettes—which brought in $3,611,509 in October, a record for the levy, and $15,369,000 for the first five months of the biennium.

The new soft drink levy, constitutionality of which is under attack in the Dauphin County court, raised $6,838,791 since June 1 while the doubled levy on malt beverages accounted for $13,421,632.

The Way Of Love

Highlights On The Sunday School Lesson

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for November 23 is 1 John 1-3; John 21:15-22, the Memory Verse being John 13:35, "By this shall all men know that ye are My disciples, if ye have love one to another.")

Love is the subject of this lesson. Love to God first, then love to man. One cannot truly love God if he loves not his fellowmen.

In writing his first epistle to his fellow Christians, John says: "Brethren, I write you no new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye have heard from the beginning." Since they became Christians they had known these truths that John now writes them; that is the old commandment that they have known. Then he writes, "Again a new commandment I write unto you, which thing is true in Him and in you; because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth." God is that light, "and in Him is no darkness at all."

"He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now."

"He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is none occasion of stumbling in him."

"But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes."

Hatred Makes Darkness
How can one see, even in the shining light, if his eyes are blinded by that worst of all darkness, hatred? Cain killed his brother Abel because he was jealous of him, and after that Cain's life was all darkness. Our daily newspapers are full of accounts of men and women who hated someone and killed them in their anger. How full of darkness must these people's lives be after such a dreadful deed. They may obtain forgiveness from God if they truly repent, but they never can be truly happy. Even little children who hate a playmate know well how such a feeling darkens their lives, and only after they have "made up" with the one they hate, can the sun shine again for them.

Normally one loves his own family and relatives, but how sad it is when family feuds cut those natural family ties and make those who should be happy in one another's society into enemies. Love creates light; makes life shining. In this epistle John calls those to whom he writes "little children." He addresses the older men, young men, and children, too, in this affectionate manner. "And now, little children," he writes, "abide in Him; that, when He shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before Him at His coming."

How love could transform this sad world! Were would be no more, for each would seek understanding of others, and settle their differences in that understanding, even if it meant sacrifice. If we truly love people, we want to give them the best, and forget our selfish desires. It is sad indeed, that nearly two thousand years since Christ was on earth, we still forget His words, which we have taken for our Memory Verse today: "By this shall all men know that ye are My disciples, if ye have love one to another."

Renounce Worldly Things

John also entreats these older men—fathers—young Christian men, and children, to renounce worldly things for the sake of their Christian lives.

"Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. . . . For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world."

"And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof; but he that doeth the will of God abideth forever."

Do you remember the story of the Risen Christ appearing to the disciples on the Sea of Galilee in northern Palestine? They had been fishing all night with no results and were weary. He stood on the shore waiting for them. At first they did not know Him, but John recognized Him first, and He had prepared a meal for them on the beach. Once more He was with them in happy communion.

After they had eaten Jesus said to Peter, "Simon, son of John, lovest thou Me more than these?" Peter answered, "Yea, Lord, Thou knowest that I love Thee. He said, Feed My lambs."

Three times Jesus asked Peter the same question until Peter was grieved that the Lord doubted his love. The last time Peter said, "Lord, Thou knowest all things; Thou knowest that I love Thee." Jesus said unto him, Feed My sheep."

Then, indicating by what martyr's death Peter would die, the Lord reminded him that when he was young he could dress himself and walk whither he would but when he should be old, "thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldst not." It is thought Peter was martyred under Nero, Roman emperor. (Copyright, 1947, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

NEW BEDFORD NOTES
On Saturday evening the Tent Hall and New Bedford Young People joined together for a hobo party. The party started from the home of Robert Wallace where everyone but the drivers were blindfolded. From there they proceeded to Jack Lenhardt's barn where they were greeted by the voices of ghosts and the rattle of skeletons. After they made a tour of the haunted barn, the blindfolds were removed and other games were enjoyed for the remainder of the evening. The hoboes ate their lunch and returned to their homes to relate their evening of fun.

Leahy's "Success" May Force Quitting

By DAVIS J. WALSH

(International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—It can be stated via valid advice today that Frank Leahy, coach of the Notre Dame football team, will leave Notre Dame for good, according to a source in the coaching circle.

It will come about, if at all, provided a reputed intrigue by rival high-pressure men in the coaching circle succeeds in its alleged purpose.

This, according to highly placed authority, is to isolate Leahy amid the grandeur of an unchallenged success at Notre Dame. The assertion came from a source prominent in the lay-councils of the university.

Coach Is Instigator

He named a Big Nine coach as one principal in the supposed movement, an eastern man as another and cited the Rose Bowl at Pasadena as figuring passively or otherwise, somewhere in the equation.

Steelers Thrill Fans, Amaze Rivals

Starless Team Confounds Loop With Their Play

Loss of Bill Dudley, Lack Of Other "Names" No Determinants To Leaders

By JIMMY JORDAN

(International News Service Sports Writer)

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 20.—There is, it would seem, good reason for the bewilderment of some partisans and frustration of some coaches over the behavior of the Pittsburgh Steelers in the National Football League.

Statistically speaking, there shouldn't be—or should there? Perhaps statistical data may merely further the bewilderment and frustration of those who saw the Steelers as more or less of a soft touch this season, and never dreamed they'd climb to such stratospherical heights—for the Steelers—as first place in the eastern division of the league. They've never had more than a passing, nodding acquaintance with the joint.

Then this year, they'd lost Bill Dudley, the league's most valuable player in 1946.

They'd lost some other players. There wasn't a "name" player on the squad.

They were going into the campaign with some rookies.

Or were they even going any place? There were few who would concede the Steelers anything better than the tie for third place they achieved last year, primarily thru the gridiron acumen of the aforementioned Dudley.

Different Story

But the statistics today tell a different story.

These last three Pittsburghers—Steve Lach, Johnny (Zero) Clement and Bob Cifers—among the top ground gainers of the eastern half. Only Steve Van Buren of the second place Eagles heads them.

They show Clement third among the passers with 50 completions good for 1,004 yards. And Val Jansante leading the pass receivers in yardage with 524.

Tony Campagno is leading the pass interception parade in yardage with 131, in touchdowns with two, and longest return of an interception, 64 yards. Charlie Seay is third in yardage in that department.

And Steve Lach is tied with Steve Van Buren for the scoring leadership with 48 points.

There are a few more little odds and ends lying about the statistics sheets, too, that may help to solve the whereabouts of that put Pittsburgh atop the heap.

Joe Glamp is in third place in scoring, and the only time he ever carried a ball all season he was hurt! He's booted 27 points after touchdown and five field goals for 42 points.

Punt Return Ace

Walt Slater is far ahead in the punt-returning business with 411 yards—almost twice as much as his nearest competitor, Pritchard of Philadelphia, with 222. Slater also is third in returning kickoffs with 401 yards.

And then there's Cifers again, who's third in punting average with 42.1 yards, but has kicked more than either of the leaders—Sammy Baugh of Washington and George Frank of New York.

That, folks, gives you somewhat of an idea.

But the players will tell you that's not all the story. They say: "We're the best conditioned team in the league. Look at the record. We've won three important games by overpowering the opposition in the last quarter."

"We'll do it again, too."

Maybe the fellows overlooked the "Silent Scot," Dr. John B. Sutherland, and his conditioning regimen, when they picked the Steelers for the ash heap a couple of months ago.

Heap Big Cager

This big brute is not the last of the Mohicans, but one of the famed "Oklahoma Indians" who will play basketball here Sunday against the Canton colored Cushites at the Arena floor.

"Thunder Bull" is his name and he can spell plenty had medicine on the hardwood.

Bears Meeting Fine Foe Friday

Mars Legion Has Won Seven And Dropped One To Date, Bears Are Ready

Mars Legion football team is bringing a fine record here Friday night, of seven wins and one defeat, to meet the Washash Bears of Mahoningtown. The kickoff at the stadium will occur at 8 o'clock.

Coach Blackie Adams is giving his Bears the final "once-over" today and will select his starting lineup and practice this afternoon. Several new faces will be in the Bears starting lineup other than that faced the Ellwood Trojans last Friday—Tony Craig will be in at fullback replacing Armand Lauro, who is ill. Pallero will be at right-half and Eddie Jacobs at left-half, with Tommy Gilboy at quarter.

Mars Heavy Line

Ernie Adams is slated to replace Gene Melchiorre at center, the latter having suffered a leg injury in the McKeesport Legion game which the Bears won. Padulla will play left guard.

Mars will have a heavy line one that will outweigh the locals. Mars has lost only to the strong McKeesport Cadets this year.

Marines To Form Basketball Team

Plans have been formulated by the Gunners Sergeant Harry T. Burns Detachment, Marine Corps League, for a cage team this winter. All former Marines interested in joining are asked to get in touch with Technical Sergeant Edder in the Federal building on the Public Square.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

unlimited substitution rule "works a hardship on officials and coaches, and robs players of incentive to make the first team."

He also stated that "the old-timers did a far better job of tackling than the boys of today." Peden expressed hope that the rule would be amended. . . . Russell Baxter and Russell Budd, the latter of East Liberty, clash in a four-round preliminary bout at Pittsburgh tonight. . . . Because of the Billy Fox-Jake LaMotta fight, which Fox won by a TKO in the fourth round, Paul E. Fitzgerald, New York Democratic state chairman stated in New York that "a resolution would be introduced at the next session of the state legislature calling for an investigation of the state athletic commission, and various abuses in the sport." He declared that the "public has lost confidence in the integrity of boxing." Meanwhile the district attorney has ordered an inquiry into the fight. Their purses are held up. . . . Sergeant Dent Shields and Policeman Ralph Criswell of the city force were invited to hunt on a certain farm. When they arrived, they did not find the man who issued the invitation, but discovered another man, who with a shotgun held in the crook of his arm, demonstrated their presence was unwelcome.

From Caracas, Venezuela, comes a report that, Owner Oscar Yanes of the Venezuela baseball club didn't think Pitcher Saul Rogovin of Brooklyn, N. Y., was "trying" in the game against the Caracas Brewers. He called the cops and had Rogovin arrested. The Brooklynite, a regular season player with Buffalo in the International league, had been the first four men to face him. The Venezuela team eventually lost the game, 6-0, after four policemen had ushered Rogovin into the clinic.

Speaking at Pompton Lakes, N. J., where he is training for Joe Walcott, World's Heavyweight King Joe Louis said that if New York state desires to join boxing, its first move should be to join the National Boxing Association. If New York were to join the NBA, he said, a fighter who was suspended or denied a license in New York would suffer the same penalties throughout the U. S., Canada and various other countries that have working agreements with the NBA.

Seven-Game Warm-Up Card

The Greyhounds will open their season against West Middlesex and then take on six other foes before their league tilts begin.

"We should have a better season," coach Eagleson states, "we have more experience on the squad and enthusiasm is high to notch our share of sectional wins."

The game with Oakmont Jan. 2 is anticipated with much interest here as the two coaches opposing each other will be brothers—John Eagleson tutoring the Oakmont five, having formerly taught the sport at New Wilmington high.

Pre-season schedule:
Dec. 2—West Middlesex away.
Dec. 5—Mercer home.
Dec. 9—Stoneboro away.
Dec. 16—West Middlesex home.
Dec. 19—Stoneboro home.
Dec. 29—Mercer away.
Jan. 2—Oakmont away.

Eagles To Join City-County Loop

New Castle Eagles Lodge 455 will sponsor a team in the newly created city-county basketball league it was announced today by Coach Bill Patton. The addition of the Eagles makes it a eight-team circuit.

Henry Navarra, chairman of the Sports Committee held a meeting at the Eagles last night, with his committeemen, and authorized a basketball team to enter the league at the Arena floor. Coach Patton plans to enter a strong team one that may grab off the championship this year. The Eagles now have bowling, golf and baseball teams under their sponsorship, in a broadening sports program.

Westminster Meets All-Stars Dec. 29

Westminster's towering Titans will be back in New Castle December 29 to play the Optimist Club All-Stars in a big benefit game, at the Arena it was announced by Gus Slovinsky, today.

Coach Bill Douglass of New Castle high will again direct the All-Stars. The Titans barely nosed out the All-Stars here last year in a similar benefit game.

BEARS WHIP FLYERS

HERSHEY, Pa., Nov. 20.—(INS)—The Hershey Bears defeated the St. Louis Flyers 4-2 last night in the Sports Arena and retained a slim lead over New Haven in the Eastern division of the American Hockey League.

Approximately 600 spectators saw the 1946-47 league champions run three goals home in the final stanza after trailing the Flyers 2-1 when the final period started.

Wilmington Greyhounds Hoping For Fair Season

Four Returning Lettermen Greet Coach Bob Eagleson For "B" Campaign; Five Other Seniors Add Strength; Open Against Middlesex Dec. 2.

NEW WILMINGTON, Nov. 20.—The Greyhounds of New Wilmington high school hope to better last year's mark in Section 23 of the WPIAL.

Five Penn State Gridders Playing Last Game At Pitt

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Nov. 20.—Five Penn State players slated to start against the University of Pittsburgh, at Pitt Stadium Saturday, will write "finis" to their college football careers in this game. The game will close the 1947 season for the Nittany Lions.

The seniors who will say farewell to college football are the two co-captains, End John Potiskian, of Brownsville, and Tackle John Nolan, of Glens Falls, N. Y., Center John Wolosky, of Brownsville, Guard Steve Suhey, of Cazenovia, N. Y., and Wingback Jeff Durkota, of Colver.

Of Pre-War Teams
Potiskian, Suhey, Wolosky and Durkota are pre-war Lions who returned to the campus last year after a wartime absence, and concluded their college eligibility this season. Nolan came to Penn State during the war as a Navy V-12 trainee, and returned last year as a civilian.

Although Coach Bob Higgins was not yet ready to name his starting lineup, he indicated that he would favor these five seniors in his selection of a starting team. All have been listed as starters or potential starters since the season started.

JUNIATA CLOSING AGAINST LEBANON

HUNTINGDON, Pa., Nov. 20.—Juniata college will close its season Saturday, Nov. 22, by meeting Andy Kerr's Flying Dutchmen of Lebanon Valley at War Veterans Memorial field here. It will be the 17th contest between the schools.

The game was switched to the downtown stadium from college field because of the collapse of the wooden bleachers at the Juniata-Curtis game on Nov. 8.

ROLL 300 GAMES IN SAME MATCH

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Johnny Beans and Al Di Giacomo rolled perfect 300 games in the same match at a league bowling contest in Philadelphia last night. Old timers said they never heard of a similar feat.

Milligan Not To Make Shifts For State Game

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 20.—There were few shifts planned in the Pitt starting lineup this week as the Panthers prepared to meet Penn State's Lions, the east's top eleven, this Saturday at the Pitt stadium in the 47th renewal of the two schools' oldest rivalry.

The anticipated crowd of 50,000 who will sit in on the game will see pretty much the same Pitt team that went down before Purdue by a 28-0 score.

Actually the greater part of the 50,000 will not be out to see Pitt. Rather they will be on hand to see what manner of team Bob Higgins has fashioned this year that has swept over all eastern rivals.

Coach Milligan of the Panthers may excuse his outfit entirely from any contact work this week, figuring the schedule has given the players enough of that.

BLAIRSVILLE-SHALER TO MEET

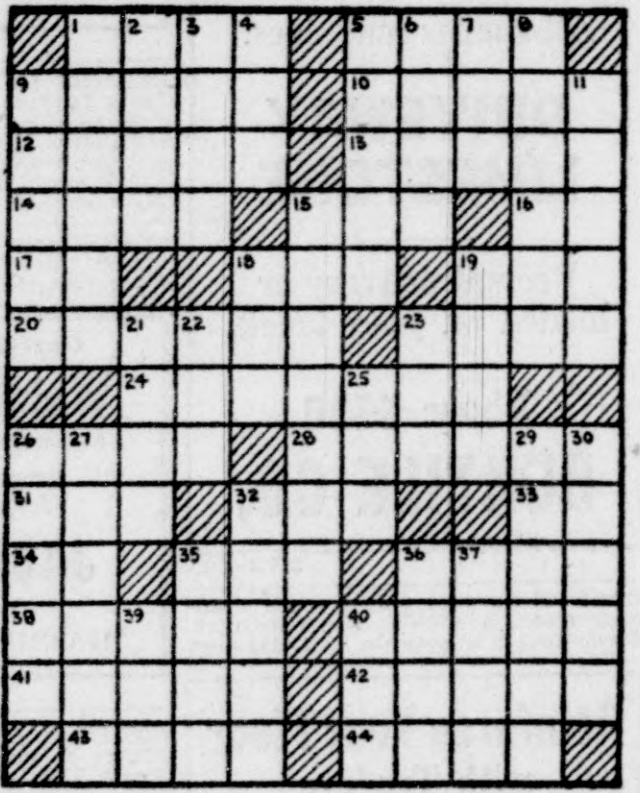

LATROBE, Pa., Nov. 20.—(INS)—Blairsville high school meets Shaler township in the class A WPIAL playoff some day soon, but just when or where won't be known until after a meeting of the football committee in Pittsburgh tonight.

Blairsville qualified for a crack at the title by scoring two touchdowns in the second half to beat Derry, 13-0, on the St. Vincent college gridiron in Latrobe last night.

Spawning Plan Meets Opposition By Dam Operators

HARRISBURG, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Construction of "fish ladders" to permit shad and wall-eyed pike to reach spawning grounds in the Susquehanna river was opposed today by operators of the Conowingo, Hollywood and Safe Harbor dams.

The proposed program would require construction of fishways at the sides of dams but operators claimed the expense would not be justified. The shad fishing industry had become "insignificant commercially," they alleged, and fish refused to use artificial channels to reach spawning areas.

Testimony was presented before the joint state government commission investigating the feasibility of restoring the "fishway" plan.

CHICAGO, Nov. 20.—(INS)—Jack Harris, professional tennis promoter, announced Wednesday that Dinny Pails, Australian tennis star, has agreed to enter professional tennis ranks at a guaranteed annual salary of $20,000.

Germany May Be Revamped

Democracies May Take Action Without The Soviet Union

OTHER NEWS OF
NATIONAL AFFAIRS

(Special To Central Press)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20.—Russia's stubborn attitude on the Japanese peace treaty and policies affecting overall administration of occupied Germany may soon force the democracies to take action without the Soviet Union.

Gen. Lucius Clay, American military governor in the United States occupation area of the Reich, recently spoke of a United Western Germany, separate and individual from the Soviet-occupied eastern zone. The general bluntly pointed out:

"Many millions of people cannot be kept without a government of their own forever."

The Anglo-American allies blame Russia for failure to carry out the Potsdam agreement calling for a unified Germany. Moscow has repeatedly blocked German unity by insisting upon 20 billion dollars in reparations. The western allies have refused on grounds that the west would have to foot the bill.

Russia has thrown a road block into negotiations on a Japanese peace treaty by demanding the full veto power on all treaty questions.

Television And The Conventions
Television and radio may decide the next president of the United States, and both Republicans and Democrats know it.

Top strategists in both parties admit that television facilities in the heavily-populated eastern states with correspondingly large blocs of electoral votes were responsible for Philadelphia winning both the GOP and Democratic conventions next summer.

The northern portion of the eastern seaboard is the only section of the United States in which television carries more than about 30 miles. Coaxial cable laid from New York to Philadelphia to Baltimore to Washington permits network programs in that general area. Thus, the voters in states which own a total of 168 out of the 432 electoral votes will be able to see as well as hear the candidates.

Kerr Seeks Senate Seat
Former Gov. Robert Kerr, of Oklahoma, one of the Democratic party's most ardent campaigners, has told friends that he definitely will run next year for the Senate seat now held by Senator Ed Moore, millionaire GOP opponent. Kerr's name was among those talked of in 1944 during consideration of a running mate for the late President Roosevelt. He was mentioned in the last year as a hopeful to succeed retiring Democratic National Chairman Hannegan, but Senator J. Harold McGrath of Rhode Island got the job.

Kerr's apparent decision to try for the Senate indicated to Washington observers that he saw little chance of the vice presidential lightning striking him in 1948.

Poultryless Day Sponsor

There has been much speculation around Washington about who thought up the idea of "Poultryless Thursday" in the Citizens' Food committee's drive to save grain for Europe.

Now that poultryless Thursday no longer exists the secret is out. But first, here are some people who didn't do it: President Truman, Charles Luckman and Secretary of Agriculture Clinton Anderson (all rumored to have been the originator).

The man who advanced the plan was Nathan Koenig, executive assistant to Anderson. Koenig is a former Washington newspaperman who once covered the Agriculture department. Anderson, in the days when he was a congressman from New Mexico, brought Koenig to the department.

Top food sources disclosed that Koenig suggested the idea at a meeting of President Truman's Cabinet Food committee. The committee decided to offer the poultryless day as a substitute for Luckman's proposal for a "wheatless Thursday."

CONVICTED OF AID ATTEMPT

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Nov. 20.—Mrs. Jennie Downey, 71, pleaded guilty to smuggling a half-dozen hacksaw blades into El Paso county jail for her foster son, David A. Downey, a convicted murderer.

Justice of the Peace E. C. McGarry sentenced her to 30 days' imprisonment and fined her $250 and costs. Mrs. Downey received the sentence dry-eyed.

The first completely roller bearing steam locomotive was built in 1929. It is still in passenger service and has traveled nearly two million miles, and nearly all the original antifriction bearings are still in use.

BACKACHE,
BE DANGER SIGN
Of Tired Kidneys

If backache and leg pains are making you miserable, don't just complain and do nothing about them. Nature may be warning you that your kidneys need attention.

The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

If the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there's something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.
